Once upon a time there was a little boy whose name was Johnny Johnny said his mamma one day will you bring me an armful of wood Yes said Johnny I m going to but just then he heard Carlo the dog barking at a chipmunk over in the meadow so he ran off as fast as he could go Now this was not the first time that Johnny had said to his mamma Yes I m going to He never thought of that wood again until about dinner time when he began to feel hungry When he got back he found that dinner was over and papa and mamma had gone to ride He found a piece of bread and butter and sat down on a Large rock with his back against the stump of a tree to eat it When it was all gone Johnny began to think what he should do next He closed his eyes as people are apt to do when they think Presently he heard a score of voices about him One was saying Wait a bit another Pretty soon another In a minute another By and by and still another louder than the rest kept screaming as loud as it could Going to going to going to till Johnny thought they were crazy Who in the world are you said he in great surprise and what are you making such a noise about We are telling our names said they didn t you ask us to tell our names No said Johnny I didn t O what a story cried they all in a breath Let s shake him for it said one No let us carry him to the king said another So they began to spin about him like so many spiders for each one of them carried a long web and when that gets wound around a boy or a girl it is a very difficult thing to get rid of In a few minutes they had him all wound up hands and feet nose and eyes all tied up tight Then they took him among them and flew away with him miles and miles over the hills and up to a big cave in the mountain There he heard ever so many more voices and it was noisier than ever Where am I he said as soon as he could speak O you re safe at home answered Wait a bit for he seemed to be the spokesman and they have been expecting you for some time This isn t my home said Johnny feeling very miserable and beginning to cry O yes it is said a chorus of voices This is just where such folks as you belong There are many of your fellows here and you won t be lonesome a bit They had begun to unwind the web from his eyes now so he opened them and looked about him O what a wretched place it was Against the sides of the cave stood long rows of boys and girls with very sorry faces all of them saying over as fast as they could speak Going to going to Wait a bit wait a bit Pretty soon pretty soon In a minute in a minute studying the names just as hard as if they were lessons There were Delays and Tardys and Put offs with ever so many more and in a corner by themselves and looking more unhappy than all the rest were the poor little fellows whose names were Too late Directions for Reading Pupils should read loud enough for all the class to hear them New National Fourth Reader Illustrated E Charles J.
