The Barnyard Buddies Meet a Newcomer Julie Penshorn,2020 A touching beautifully illustrated story with an important message of empathy and compassion This exciting adventure brings to light the real life struggles of people in transition Readers of all ages are reminded of the importance of belonging for mental and physical health The extensive Parent and Educator Guide provides several lesson plans In this story a forlorn and hungry refugee dog wanders into the barnyard where common real life concerns about newcomers are played out by barnyard animals Portland Pig wonders how this dog will be fed while others wonder if he s dangerous Dogs bite says Ol Dot one of the horses Ultimately the characters figure out a consensus solution that allows them to act compassionately though they have concerns Children and adults alike will cry over the suffering of the refugee dog and turn a page to feel the fear that some of the Barnyard Buddies have of the newcomer They will watch courage grow among the animals as they get to know the newcomer and will appreciate that each one s voice is heard They will cheer for the dog as he bravely chases the coyote out of the chicken coup and gasp when after saving the chickens the farmer is still planning to take the dog to the animal shelter The story evolves While it does have a happy ending many of the children coming to our country or our communities as immigrants refugees and newcomers don t have that experience Children benefit from opportunities to think about these difficult conundrums Most children quite naturally hold compassion in their hearts while they consider practical implications Reinforcing this ability and putting it in a memorable story helps them recognize the value of their thinking Further it helps them believe in themselves and stand up with courage to bully behavior or other tactics of isolation The Barnyard Buddies illustrate and talk about both majority rule and consensus building The book fills a current intense need for children to delve more deeply as they begin to grapple with complex problems Today s kids will need to solve many issues around increased displacement as we face disruptions due to climate change war famine political unrest and so on Illustrator Jeanine Jonee brings Penshorn s characters to life If you ve read Penshorn s other award winning books The Barnyard

Buddies STOP for Peace and I Can See Peace you will recognize her amazing talent at bringing life and emotion to each character This is a story that stays with children for life It is a book grown ups will love reading over and over to kids both young and old Supplied with the Parent and Educator Guide painstakingly edited for its content by Rebecca Janke M Ed adults will have many tools for creating a more peaceful inclusive classroom home or faith environment Reading stories of compassion and peace to young children who learn to love books because their hearts are filled and their spirits are inspired helps nurture a culture we all want to live in We all need to feel we belong That s the first step toward stopping the next school shooting the next bully s actions or even stopping the destruction of the environment Our shared humanity is celebrated by our compassionate actions Maddie and Miss Birdie Sherri Brady,2019-05-24 Maddie and Miss Birdie Cousins Can Be So Cool focuses on the letter C It is the third book in a series of twenty six The goals of this series are to indicate that in perceived imperfection there is still grace and perfection to teach the alphabet and increase vocabulary to show a love for animals while teaching facts of each to show that the imagination is a wonderful thing to use and to bring to children ideas of entertainment and excitement that lie within nature Each book has a character with a childhood illness or disorder that begins with the letter of the alphabet that the book is focused on Maddie is a smart kind adventurous young girl who is always looking to have a day full of fun Miss Birdie is a bluebird who is Maddie s sidekick and stays prepared to help and serve with unconditional love Join Maddie and her cousins as they play in their clubhouses that they call the castle and the cave Their imagination allows them to be princesses and cadets and create animals in the clouds As Captain Carson his cadets and loyal Labrador named Chief plan an attack on the girls Braylin s cystic fibrosis causes her to have a crisis As cruddy as cystic fibrosis is it seems that a crisis is the charm that makes the cousins realize that coming together is much better than playing against one another As you enjoy this story you will learn that courage confidence and clemency are really cool Look for Maddie and Miss Birdie s other books An Apple Orchard Adventure Barnyard Buddies Barnyard Buddies (CD+Book) Patricia M.
