Barrio Street Carnival Dreams Jeff Carlson, 1996-03 Barrio Streets, Carnival Dreams Lori M.

Carlson, 1998-10-01 An homage to Latino American artistry that is also a history of Latinos in this century In three sections composed of memoirs essays poems drawings photographs Carlson shows how distinct generations of Latinos have passed on their heritage to the future Featuring more than 25 authors artists including Susan Lowell Agassiz Fuertes Oscar Hijuelos Felipe Galindo Rosie Perez Jaime Hernandez many others This book celebrates the different experiences as well as the dynamic complex ever changing history of Spanish speaking people in 20th century America Many Peoples, One Land

Alethea K. Helbig, Agnes Regan Perkins, 2000-10-30 Celebrating the wealth of quality multicultural literature recently published for children and young adults this valuable resource examines the fiction oral tradition and poetry from four major ethnic groups in the United States Each of these genres is considered in turn for the literature dealing with African Americans Asian Americans Hispanic Americans and Native American Indians Taking up where their earlier volume This Land is Our Land left off Helbig and Perkins have teamed up once again to identify and expertly evaluate more than 500 multicultural books published from 1994 through 1999 Both considered authorities in the field of children's literature the two of them personally selected read and evaluated all the books included here Their insightful annotations help readers carefully consider both literary standards such as plot development characterization and style as well as cultural values as they are represented in these cited works Each entry also indicates the suggested age and grade level appropriateness of the work With the proliferation and ever increasing popularity of multicultural literature for children and young adults this sensitively written volume will serve as an invaluable collection development tool Teachers as well as librarians will find the comprehensiveness and organization of this bibliography helpful as a guide in selecting appropriate materials for classroom use Even students will find this book easy to use with its five indexes identifying works by title writer illustrator grade level and subject Public libraries and school media centers will find much use for Many Peoples One Land We're Alive and Life Goes On

Eva Roubickova, 2015-09-29 It's a terrible feeling to see the fate of thousands of people dependent on a single person It seems like a mass judgment to me life or death On December 17 1941 twenty year old Eva Mandlov arrived at the Nazi's model concentration camp Theresienstadt From that day until she was freed three and a half years later she kept a diary At times sweet and personal at times agonized and profound Eva is a human voice amidst inhuman evil Through Eva's eyes the camp sometimes even resembles normal life as she makes friends and talks with Benny or Egon or Otto But at any moment anyone may be selected for a transport to Poland No one ever returns from Poland Never before published Eva's diary is a true life Sophie's Choice in which each day brings impossible decisions As a Gentile man inexplicably helps her Eva must decide who should share her bounty As close friends and loved ones are sent away she has to decide over and over again whether to ask to join them on their final journey Bibliographic Guide to Chicana and Latina Narrative Kathy

Leonard,2003-08-30 There has been a dramatic increase in the amount of narrative work published by Chicana and Latina authors in the past 5 to 10 years Nonetheless there has been little attempt to catalog this material This reference provides convenient access to all forms of narrative written by Chicana and Latina authors from the early 1940s through 2002 In doing so it helps users locate these works and surveys the growth of this vast body of literature The volume cites more than 2 750 short stories novels novel excerpts and autobiographies written by some 600 Mexican American Puerto Rican Cuban American Dominican American and Nuyorican women authors These citations are grouped in five indexes an author title index title author index anthology index novel index and autobiography index Short annotations are provided for the anthologies novels and autobiographies Thus the user who knows the title of a work can discover the author the other works the author has written and the anthologies in which the author s shorter pieces have been reprinted along with information about particular works Ethnic Literary Traditions in American Children's Literature M. Stewart,Y.

Atkinson,2009-11-23 Esteemed contributors expand the range of possibilities for reading understanding and teaching children s literature as ethnic literature rather than children s literature in this ambitious collection Encyclopedia of Urban America [2 Volumes] Neil L. Shumsky,1998-10 This monumental work provides detailed definitions and context for the many terms and names encountered while studying the development and significance of the metropolis the megalopolis and of course the newly discovered edge city among other strains of suburb Includes 547 entries highlighting cultural and social phenomenon economic and political issues environmental concerns transportation and infrastructure ethnic and racial groups the role of religion and key figures in urban politics literature art and music The editor s introductory essay discusses the definition of urban and the development of urban studies Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR
