O'Neill left fielder for the St Louis Browns won the American Association batting championship with a .492 average the highest ever for a single season in the Major Leagues Yet his record was set during a season when a base on balls counted as a hit and a time at bat Over the next 130 years the debate about O'Neill's correct average diverted attention from the other batting feats of his record breaking season including numerous multi hit games streaks and long hits as well as two cycles and the triple crown The Browns entered 1887 as the champions of St Louis the American Association and the world Following the lead set by their manager Charles Comiskey the Browns did anything to win combining skill with an aggressive style of play that included noisy coaching incessant kicking trickery and rough play O'Neill did everything to win at the plate watched thousands of great and not so great hitters while discerning the fundamentals of success at the plate Countless hours spent experimenting watching video and refining his own techniques have helped transform Carew from one of the game's best hitters to one of its most revered teachers Rod Carew's Hit to Win teaches hitters how to develop their own swing stance and plate approach all within the framework of solid fundamentals Detailed photos and diagrams help students envision and execute success at the plate Carew's hitting philosophy is featured here as well with a focus on the mental and psychological battle between a hitter and a pitcher Carew encourages his students to be creative and flexible in the batter's box making Rod Carew's Hit to Win the ideal instructional tool for hitters of all ages and skill levels
