The National Pastime: A Review of Baseball History Edited by John Thorn, 2014-12 Back in 1982 the Society for American Baseball Research was still young barely a decade past its founding and had grown to some 1600 members One of their number a defrocked English Lit guy poking around in journalism suggested to the board of directors that SABR and the world might benefit from a publication along the lines of American Heritage only about baseball Before long that member John Thorn found himself at the helm of the newly christened periodical The National Pastime A Review of Baseball History The very first issue included names we think of today as luminaries in the field of baseball history and analysis Harold Seymour Lawrence S Ritter Pete Palmer David Voigt Bob Broeg and more Over the years the significance of that flagship issue has only grown while the inventory has dwindled SABR is pleased to present a replica edition here with the addition of a new preface by John Thorn now the official historian of Major League Baseball This issue includes Nate Colbert s Unknown RBI Record by Bob Carroll Nineteenth Century Baseball Deserves Equal Time by Art Ahrens Dandy at Third Ray Dandridge by John B Holway How Fast Was Cool Papa Bell by Jim Bankes The Field of Play by David Sanders Ladies and Gentlemen Presenting Marty McHale by Lawrence S Ritter Remembrance of Summers Past by Bob Broeg The Merkle Blunder A Kaleidoscopic View by G H Fleming A Tale of Two Sluggers Roger Maris and Hack Wilson by Don Nelson Baseball s Misbegottens Expansion Era Managers by David Voigt The Early Years A Gallery by Mark Rucker and Lew Lipset The Egyptian and the Greyhounds by Lew Lipset All the Record Books Are Wrong by Frank J Williams Goose Goslin s Induction Day by Lawrence S Ritter The Great New York Team of 1927 and It Wasn t the Yankees by Fred Stein Modern Times A Portfolio by Stuart Leeds Books Before Baseball A Personal History by Harold Seymour Ph D Ballparks A Quiz by Bob Bluthardt Runs and Wins by Pete Palmer Baltimore the Eastern Shore and More by Al Kermisch David and Goliath Figures by Ted DiTullio Double Joe Dwyer A Life in the Bushes by Gerald Tomlinson      The National Pastime Society for American Baseball Research (Sabr), 1995-05 The National Pastime offers baseball history available nowhere else Each fall this publication from the Society for American Baseball Research SABR explores baseball history with fresh and often surprising views of past players teams and events Drawn from the research efforts of more than 6 700 SABR members The National Pastime establishes an accurate lively and entertaining historical record of baseball A Note from the Editor Mark Alvarez Our covers this month emphasize the gently bucolic element of our sport In these ugly and frustrating times I thought we could all use an afternoon lolling about on the soft spring grass listening to the crack of the bat the pop of the mitt and the chatter from the infield Maybe we could even step in and take a few cuts ourselves amazing everyone with line shots into the alleys before modestly returning to the sidelines I m not very big on nostalgia It is after all a kind of lie excluding as it does all but the good memories or worse turning ugly times and circumstances golden But there s nothing wrong with good history that also makes us smile During this awful period for baseball such history can bring us to a place where the Brattleboro Islanders take on the Twin State League in their picturesque ballpark or where 14 year old Dutch Doyle sells cold drinks never lemonade in the stands at Baker Bowl or where Billy Loes overmatches the opposition in his first minor league season or where Roy Face throws his forkball and simply can t lose or where the big guns are guys named Goslin Manush Mayer Foxx and Vosmik not Reinsdorf Selig or Fehr I suspect we all feel a little better just picturing Richie Ashburn and Wally Berger and Swish Nicholson and Mort Cooper This year thanks to Geoff LaCasse we can even glimpse the marvelously talented Hal Chase before The Fall In this issue there are also important articles by Norman Macht who sets the record straight on the financial relationship between Ty Cobb and Mickey Cochrane virtually none by Tom Nawrocki who discusses Cap Anson s early experiments with platooning by Jerry Malloy who gives us a history of baseball in the black 25th Infantry Regiment and by others who cover SABR s typically huge range of interests and eras This is by far the largest issue of The National Pastime that we ve ever produced and it is the result of a vastly increased number of good manuscripts flowing into the publications office

The National Pastime Society for American Baseball Research (SABR), 2005-05 The National Pastime offers baseball history available nowhere else Each fall this publication from the Society for American Baseball Research SABR explores baseball history with fresh and often surprising views of past players teams and events Drawn from the research efforts of more than 6 700 SABR members The National Pastime establishes an accurate lively and entertaining historical record of baseball A Note from the Editor Jim Charlton The National Pastime for 2005 has a number of entertaining stories from beginning to end At the beginning is Bill Nowlin and Kit Krieger s engaging cover story about discovering a worn and faded commemorative plaque in Havana s La Tropical park The bronze memorialized a game played there between two teams of American all stars in 1930 The discovery of the plaque in 2001 came about during a Cubaball trip led by Kit There were about a dozen SABR members along including myself so I was delighted when Kit and Bill wrote up the story What makes the account even more interesting is the addition of photos from an album given to each of the all stars who played in the 1930 game by their generous Cuban host Blanco Herrera Lance Richbourg was one of the touring stars and his son the artist Lance Richbourg Jr graciously lent the album to us There are two articles on foul balls two that discuss Ole Hoss Radbourn and two that are interviews with former ball players The latter includes Jim Smith s article based on talks with Bobby Doerr discussing his PCL career as a teenage infielder beginning with the Hollywood Sheiks When that team shifted to San Diego Bobby became an original Padre before going on to star for the Boston Red Sox Jim Sargent shares with us Carl

Erskine's reflections on the Boys of Summer Both former stars come off as remarkable men David Vincent takes us on a tour of Arlington National Cemetery and discusses the nearly two dozen baseball notables buried there From Abner Doubleday to SABR founder Bob Davids not the only SABR member buried at Arlington the list includes Lu Blue Doc Lavan and less known Major and Negro Leaguers

A Note from the Editor John B Holway If time is a river just where are we now as we float with the current Where have we been Where may we be going on this journey I thought it would be fun to take readings of our position by looking at where our game and by extension our country and our world were one two three and more generations ago Mark Twain once wrote that biography is a matter of placing lamps at intervals along a person's life He meant that no biographer can completely illuminate the entire story But if we use his metaphor and place lamps at 25 year intervals in the biography of baseball we can perhaps more dramatically see our progress which we sometimes lose sight of in a day by day or year by year narrative history We can see the game and the world as mom and dad saw it in 1961 as our grandparents saw it in 1941 our great grandparents in 1916 and so on back to

1841 Fifty years from now some of our SABR members of today will write the history of 1991 as they look back from the vantage point of 2041 How will we and our world look to their grandchildren who will read those histories What stories will they cover Rickey Henderson and Nolan Ryan Jose Canseco and Cecil Fielder The Twins and the Braves Toronto s 4 million fans What things do we take for granted that they will find quaint What kind of game will the fans of that future world be seeing What kind of world beyond sports will they live in It s to today s young people the historians of tomorrow and to their children and grandchildren that we dedicate this issue from the SABR members of 1991 to the SABR members of 2041 with prayers that you will read it in a world filled with excitement and peace where all your battles will be for pennants

The Canadian Historical Review ,1930      American National Pastimes - A History Mark Dyreson,Jaime Schultz,2016-04-14 When the colonies that became the USA were still dominions of the British Empire they began to imagine their sporting pastimes as finer recreations than even those enjoyed in the motherland From the war of independence and the creation of the republic to the twenty first century sporting pastimes have served as essential ingredients in forging nationhood in American history This collection gathers the work of an all star team of historians of American sport in order to explore the origins and meanings of the idea of national pastimes of a nation symbolized by its sports These wide ranging essays analyze the claims of particular sports to national pastime status from horse racing hunting and prize fighting in early American history to baseball basketball and football more than two centuries later These essays also investigate the legal political economic and culture patterns and the gender ethnic racial and class dynamics of national pastimes connecting sport to broader historical themes American National Pastimes chronicles how and why the USA has used sport to define and debate the contours of nation This book was published as a special issue of the International Journal of the History of Sport
