

109. Letter to Frank Barber

27B Cannonbury Square
Islington
London N1
1 September 1945

Dear Mr Barber,

Many thanks for your letter, and thanks for the notice in the Yish-ahive Evening News, which I had already seen. I am sorry you have left the Leeds Weekly Citizen, as it is so important that there should be some Labour papers which are not taken in by Russian propaganda. However, I think the intellectual atmosphere is changing a bit. I have been surprised by the friendly reception Animal Farm has had, after lying in type for about a year because the publisher dared not bring it out till the war was over. I don't suppose there will be any more copies yet awhile, as the first edition sold out immediately. Warburg is printing a second edition of 6,000 copies, but I suppose there will be the usual delays before they appear.

No, I haven't severed connection with Tribune, though I have given up the literary editorship. I was, of course, obliged to stop the column while I went abroad, but I am going to start doing another weekly article for them in October.

Yours sincerely
Geo. Orwell

110. Author's Preface to the Ukrainian Edition of Animal Farm

[In March 1947 Orwell wrote a special preface for the Ukrainian edition of Animal Farm, distributed in November the same year by a Ukrainian Displaced Persons Organisation in Munich. Orwell's original text has not been traced and the version given here is a re-casting back into English from the Ukrainian translation.]

I have been asked to write a preface to the Ukrainian translation of Animal Farm. I am aware that I write for readers about whom I know nothing, but also that they too have probably never had the slightest opportunity to know anything about me.

In this preface they will most likely expect me to say something of how Animal Farm originated but first I would like to say something about myself and the experiences by which I arrived at my political position.

I was born in India in 1903. My father was an official in the English administration there, and my family was one of those ordinary middle-class families of soldiers, clergymen, government officials, teachers, lawyers, doctors, etc. I was educated at Eton, the most costly and snobbish of the English Public Schools. But I had only got in there by means of a scholarship; otherwise my father could not have afforded to send me to a school of this type.

Shortly after I left school (I wasn't quite twenty years old then) I went to Burma and joined the Indian Imperial Police. This was an armed police, a sort of gendarmerie very similar to the Spanish Guardia Civil or the Garde Mobile in France. I stayed five years in the service. It did not suit me and made me hate imperialism, although at that time nationalist feelings in Burma were not very marked, and relations between the English and the Burmese were not particularly bad. When on leave in England in 1927, I resigned from the service and decided to become a writer: at first without any especial success. In 1928-9 I lived in Paris and wrote short stories and novels that nobody would print (I have since destroyed them all). In the following years I lived mostly from hand to mouth, and went hungry on several occasions. It was only from 1934 onwards that I was able to live on what I earned from my writing. In the meantime I sometimes lived for months on end amongst the poor and half-criminal elements who inhabit the worst parts of the poorer quarters, or take to the streets, begging and straggling. At that time I associated with them through lack of money, but later their way of life interested me very much for its own sake. I spent many months (more systematically this time) studying the conditions of the miners in the north of England. Up to 1930 I did not on the whole look upon myself as a Socialist. In fact I had as yet no clearly defined political views. I became pro-Socialist more out of disgust with the way the poorer section of the industrial workers were oppressed and neglected than out of any theoretical admiration for a planned society.

In 1936 I got married. In almost the same week the civil war broke out in Spain. My wife and I both wanted to go to Spain and fight for the Spanish Government. We were ready in six months, as soon as I had finished the book I was writing. In Spain I spent almost six months on the Aragon front until, at Huesca, a Fascist sniper shot me through the throat.
