Fullness of Life and Justice for All

Thomas Eggenesperger, Ulrich Engel, Manuela Kalsky, Ellen Van Stichel, 2020-09-01 Poverty inequality violent conflicts climate change migration racism burn out are just a few of the symptoms showing how living life to the fullest is out of reach for so many people in our world Is then seeking fullness of life and justice for all not a too ambitious project For nothing less than the wellbeing of humanity and in extension the whole of creation is at stake On the other hand we see people responding acting and struggling for justice liberation and a more sustainable world How to make sense of the ideas of fullness of life and justice for all in light of the many crises humanity currently faces but also the glimpses of positive and hopeful responses Even more so how to make sense theologically In this volume twenty authors reflect on how the notions of fullness of life and justice for all are theoretically conceived and have practically taken form from within Dominican theology and spirituality The contributions on youth spirituality contemplation art as a means to community building gender pluralization populism and management discuss the fullness of life in both its material and spiritual dimensions The question on justice for all is raised in confrontation with issues such as poverty migration ecological threats and the role of virtues in society In this way the book aims to uncover a variety of Dominican perspectives as valuable contributions to a broader dialogue on the fullness of life and justice for all
