Lectionary Preaching Workbook, Series IX, Cycle a Mark Ellingsen, 2013-08-01 Mark Ellingsen s new Lectionary Preaching Workbook will be a wonderful resource for pastors for decades to come I say this because I find the book to be exegetically sound theologically strong homiletically creative liturgically sensitive and imminently practical in the best sense of that word Practical Theology of the highest order that s what describes Ellingsen s workbook A modest hope is that preachers who have found themselves timid about approaching the lectionary will see in Mark Ellingsen s workbook a way to test the waters and eventually dive in Ellingsen provides here the opportunity for that homiletical leap of faith William J Carl III Ph D President and Professor of Homiletics Pittsburgh Theological Seminary Dr

Ellingsen presents the preacher with a resource that deeply enriches weekly sermon preparation. Not only does he offer exegetical and theological information for the lections but sermon topics, themes, and other resources as well. I also appreciate the resources that he offers at the beginning of the workbook: the review of the books of the Bible, a theological overview, as well as reviews of the various seasons of the church. Unlike so many lectionary resources that are grounded in the scriptures, Dr. Ellingsen incorporates a strong focus on the theological emphasis of the texts and context. I will definitely encourage the students to purchase this workbook.

Lucy Lind Hogan, Ph.D., Hugh Latimer Elderdice, Professor of Preaching and Worship, Wesley Theological Seminary, Washington, DC.

Mark Ellingsen's Lectionary Preaching Workbook, Series IX, Cycle A is a rich and stimulating resource for preachers, especially those who manage the adamant deadline really lifeline imposed on preachers by weekly worship. Each section is filled with theological reflection, liturgical sensibility, exegetical sketches, along with sermon prompts, outlines, and gimmicks. This last is his own word for what amount to suggestions for why a sermon on a particular text can be made to matter to both preacher and audience. Ellingsen's stated intent is to be an unbiased conversation partner with the preacher, and in this goal, he is careful to provide a range of options for topic and approach for each occasion. The closer a preacher is to wanting to continue in the Protestant tradition, if theologically informed, exegetically nuanced, liturgically sensitive, and rhetorically focused, the more that preacher will find Lectionary Preaching Workbook a sturdy companion.

Henry J. Hank Langknecht, Haman Pfahler, Professor of Homiletics and Christian Communications, Trinity Lutheran Seminary, Columbus, Ohio.

Mark Ellingsen, a minister in the Evangelical Lutheran Church of America (ELCA), has been a professor of Church History at the Interdenominational Theological Center in Atlanta, Georgia, since 1993. He graduated magna cum laude from Gettysburg College, Pennsylvania, and Yale University, from which he received three master's degrees in divinity, arts, and philosophy, as well as his Ph.D. He has authored eighteen books, including Sin Bravely: A Joyful Alternative to a Purpose-Driven Life Continuum and The Integrity of Narrative. Wipf and Stock. He and his wife have three grown children. When he is not writing or teaching, Ellingsen enjoys discussing politics, sports, and playing guitar.

Lectionary Preaching Workbook, Series A John R. Brokhoff, 1980

Lectionary Preaching Workbook, Series VI, Cycle C E. Carver McGriff, 1998

Preachers must understand the teaching techniques of parable and hyperbole, not to mention having a good background in systematic theology, in order to understand what the Bible's writers really meant. But our responsibility is also to reduce the complexities of Bible study to such simplicities that our many listeners, ranging from busy young professional people to aging men and women of failing health to youngsters facing a variety of new temptations, can take away a saving word from the Preface. E. Carver McGriff provides the tools preachers need for their daunting task with some of the most timely and thought-provoking research on the lectionary texts ever made available. Included for each scriptural lesson in the lectionary are: A listing of the applicable Revised Common Roman Catholic and Episcopal lectionary texts; A description of the Psalm of the day; A prayer for the day; Commentary that is more than academic exegesis. McGriff brings to the forefront those points in the lessons that relate most poignantly to our contemporary reality Suggested sermon titles for each of the three texts for each Sunday Themes and suggested directions for preaching on each text Several additional illustrations to enliven your preaching Known in the Indianapolis community as a preacher with extraordinary gifts it is no surprise at all that this work by Carver McGriff brings remarkable insights to those who look for integrity in their preaching Carver looks at the texts with a freshness that is sure to stimulate the thought process Careful use of these suggestions will bring serendipities to preacher and congregation George H Tooze Senior Minister First Baptist Church Indianapolis Indiana One of America s premiere preachers E Carver McGriff returned home after earning two Purple Hearts during World War II to earn a degree in business administration from Butler University Following a career as a salesman and business owner McGriff entered Garrett Theological Seminary where he was voted Best Preacher by the faculty and graduated with distinction During his 26 year ministry at St Luke s Methodist Church in Indianapolis McGriff spearheaded his congregation s remarkable growth in membership from 900 to 4 400 with average Sunday attendance increasing from 300 to over 1 850 McGriff received an honorary degree from the University of Indianapolis and the Outstanding Alumnus award from Butler University and was voted the Distinguished Alumnus of the year by Christian Theological Seminary McGriff was also honored in 1993 by the Governor of Indiana with the Sagamore of the Wabash His sermons have been distributed nationwide by the United Methodist Publishing House Lectionary Preaching Workbook, Series VI, Cycle B E. Carver McGriff,1999-06 I would like to enter a partnership with you sharing what these assigned passages say to me setting forth what I might do with each assigned text hopefully igniting ideas in your busy and at times overburdened mind and spirit so that together we may bring that word from the Lord My hope is not to take the work entirely out of sermon preparation but to generate a process whereby the busy sometimes overworked preacher can get off to a running start Lectionary Preaching Workbook George M. Bass,1989 Practical preaching strategies to help the overburdened parish pastor communicate God s Word in vital meaningful ways This is the first volume in CSS s third series of popular preaching workbooks Designed to help you get the most out of every moment you spend in sermon preparation Special Features Include Commentary on Roman Catholic Episcopal Lutheran and Common lectionary texts Sermon Starters for First Lesson Second Lesson and Gospel texts for every Sunday in Cycle A Theological Clues to help you explore the relationships among all the texts for each Sunday Wide Margins and Stay flat binding for ease of use Overviews of preaching challenges and possibilities for each liturgical season Extensive Bibliography of exegetical and homiletic resources for Cycle A preaching And All new Insights from one of CSS s most well respected and successful authors This workbook is an exercise in liturgical as well as lectionary preaching It springs from the rationale that most lectionary helps ignore the liturgical setting of the lessons assigned to the various Sundays It is this author s contention that the exegetical homiletical process begins with the church year The year cycles seasons Sundays and festivals establish the themes and provide theological clues for worship and particularly preaching especially in the first half of the church year This approach is the outgrowth of the author s doctoral dissertation and two of his books The Renewal Of Liturgical Preaching and The Song And The Story Both deal with preaching from the lectionary texts in the context of the worship work and lives of the people of God George M Bass is the Alvin N Rogness Professor of Pastoral Theology and Ministry Homiletics at Luther Northwestern Theological Seminary Saint Paul Minnesota He has studied at Susquehanna University Lutheran Theological Seminary at Philadelphia Temple University the University of Edinburgh the Pontifical Gregorian University in Rome and Cambridge University Dr Bass is a prolific author whose contributions to homiletics also include The Song and the Story and Great Stories of the Faith both available from CSS
