good guys and bad guys who variously go down in blazes of guts glory bullets and fire Hawke and Fishburne are opposite sides of the coin the law and the bathroom scale Their need to partner in order to survive the guns outside is the movie's moral conflict and both actors chew on Precinct 13's peeling walls and scuffed floors to drive the point home every chance they get Obvious filmmaking fakery abounds in everything from the irksome snowstorm frequent gunshots to the head and a shadowy forest that conveniently presents itself in an industrial section of Detroit for the climactic showdown No matter this Assault is for non thinkers who want blood and gunpowder with no messy slowdowns for logic please John Carpenter
