All of Us or None Lincoln Cushing, 2014-05-01 A riveting survey of almost three hundred posters revealing a history of Bay Area artists activists and movements from the 1960s to 2012 This catalog of political posters pays homage to an influential and populist art movement that has created some of the most enduring imagery of our time In All of Us or None author Lincoln Cushing examines key selections from a remarkable archive of over 24,000 posters amassed by free speech movement activist author and educator Michael Rossman over the course of thirty years This inspiring collection of Bay Area posters illuminates the history of this ad hoc and ephemeral art form celebrating its unique capacity to infuse contemporary issues with the urgency and energy of the eternal fight for justice Featuring posters on topics as diverse as civil rights war poverty the environment music women's liberation fine art and gentrification All of Us or None shows us why the Bay Area was such fertile breeding ground for the genre and why it arguably produced more independent political posters than anywhere else on earth Here is an exhilarating history of artists studios printshops distributors activists icons and changemakers among them R Crumb Stanley Mouse Cesar Chavez Max Scherr Emory Douglas Angela Davis the San Francisco Mime Troupe Bill Graham and Pete Seeger together raising their voices in opposition to the status quo In spring of 2012 the Oakland Museum of California presented its first comprehensive exhibition of this recently acquired treasure the show along with this book presented an unbroken narrative of passionate social justice printmaking from the mid 1960s to 2012 This engaging catalogue surveys nearly 300 of the late Michael Rossman s enormous collection of over 24 000 San Francisco Bay Area social justice posters With fluid highly accessible prose Cushing traces the lineage of images that have now become iconic such as Frank Cieciora s often quoted clenched fist or the Black Panther Party s panther symbol as rendered by Emory Douglas and others Publishers Weekly An extremely remarkable and useful book remarkable because it brings back so many of the memorable images of rebellion political cultural and both together from a past now rapidly receding and useful because in our new era of protest creative expression in artistic forms is more badly needed than ever Lincoln Cushing a distinguished scholar of political art has given us a small masterpiece Paul Buhle publisher of the SDS magazine Radical America and author of more than forty books on radical politics and culture Fire and Form William Warmus,2003 South Florida is home to some of the world s premier private collections of studio glass collections whose abundance diversity and quality are celebrated in Fire and Form This volume features more than 100 works by 31 of the best known American and European glass artists of our time including Jaroslava Brychtova Dale Chihuly Dan Dailey Stanislav Libensky William Morris Tom Patti Lino Tagliapietra and many others William Warmus identifies four prominent themes in the relatively recent development of studio glass since 1960 that provide a framework for exploring the rich variety of works presented in this book The first theme is what Warmus has called the particular affinity between nature and the making of glass Where nature creates a heart the glass artist creates a heart felt vessel The second is the ability of glass equally to that of painting and sculpture to convey the power of abstraction and color A third theme is the prevalent use of glass sometimes called the new bronze to depict the human figure and animal forms The final section deals with the theatrical nature of installations and environmental sculptures demonstrating the surprising capability of glass to impose itself physically and emotionally on the space we inhabit altering our very perception of it ancient Egypt and places contemporary glass within the context of contemporary art and theory at large In addition the book includes selected artists bibliographies and a chronological bibliography of contemporary glass that lists key historical events general trends and developments and important publications Fire and Form offers a unique perspective on this vital and intoxicating medium and its publication is a welcome event for all lovers of glass those who make it those who collect it and those who admire it Drawing from the Modern: 1880-1945 Jodi Hauptman,Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.),2004 While art history has made room for the flurry of movements that emerged in the period following World War II the myriad artistic developments of the last thirty years have yet to be assigned firm historical categories Drawing from the Modern 1975 2005 the final installment in a series of inaugural year exhibitions produced by the Department of Drawings attempts to tell a provisional story of the years from 1975 to the present as reflected through MoMA's singular drawings collection While making no claims to comprehensiveness the installation details both the blossoming of different art positions on a broad international scale in this era and the coming of age of drawing as an independent and for many artists primary mode of expression Organized chronologically and in loose clusters of artists working in the same milieu or vein of interest the exhibition features works by more than fifty artists including Bruce Nauman Gerhard Richter Martin Kippenberger Marlene Dumas Gabriel Orozco Kara Walker and Luc Tuymans

American Craft, 2000 Variations on America George Gurney, 2007 Presents colour plates of over 70 paintings by the leading names in 19th and 20th century American art Celebrating Modern Art San Francisco Museum of Modern Art, 2000 The Anderson collection is among the greatest private collections of modern and contemporary art in the United States This work features the works of over 140 artists including Willem de Kooning Jackson Pollock and Mark Rothko
