Porpora, 2003-10-09 Do you believe in God Nine out of ten Americans unhesitatingly answer yes But for Douglas Porpora the real questions begin where pollsters leave off What he asks does religious belief actually mean in our lives Does it shape our identities and our actions Or despite our professions of faith are we morally adrift Landscapes of the Soul paints a disturbing picture of American spiritual life In his search for answers to his questions Porpora interviewed clerks and executives Jews evangelical Christians Buddhists Taoists and even followers of Bhagwan Sri Rajneesh He asked them about God and about what they saw as their own place in the universe What he found was a widespread inability to articulate any grand meaning of life We lack heroes to inspire us We lack a sense of calling of transcendent purpose in our existence Many of us seem incapable of caring deeply about the suffering of others Our society is permeated with moral indifference Yes we are a believing people but God is often a distant abstraction and rarely an emotional presence in our lives Only such an emotional connection Porpora argues can be the basis of a genuine moral vision Our emotional estrangement from God and the sacred keeps us from caring about social justice keeps us from wanting to change the world keeps us enclosed in our own private worlds Landscapes of the Soul is a passionate call to broaden our spiritual and moral horizons to raise our eyes to the greater reality that unites us all Speak, My Soul Marsha Crockett, 2024-05-15 Learn to listen for the voice of God Our soul speaks but can we hear it In our noisy and overcrowded lives it is often difficult to find the space to listen deeply to our own inner voice let alone the voice of God In Speak My Soul spiritual guide Marsha Crockett leads you through seven pathways for slowing down and discerning God's promptings in your daily life Using the psalms as a spiritual roadmap the journey will include seven weeks of daily meditations prayers practices and prompts to help you enter and explore the quiet landscape of the soul speaking to you even now Speak My Soul is ideal for both personal and group use and includes the following A daily and weekly rhythm for personal devotion reflection prayer and suggestions for journaling A Small Group Leader's Guide including tips on developing listening groups teaching active listening skills and group dynamics Speak My Soul Psalms Bonus content with reflection questions for six additional psalms Lenten Retreat Guide Inner Path Identifiers a chart of traits challenges and disciplines associated with each of the seven inner paths for further reflections The Publishers Weekly, 1998 The Library Journal, 1998-07 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Junior libraries 1954 May 1961 Also issued separately Mystics Quarterly, 2000 Zyzyva, 1998 Art Therapy, 1998 Writer's Guide to Book Editors, Publishers and Literary Agents, 2001-2002 Jeff Herman, 2000-07-20 Writer's Guide to Book Editors Publishers and Literary Agents gets you past the slush piles and into the hands of the right people This one of a kind reference gives you the names addresses and phone

A Parliament of Souls Stephen R. L. Clark, 1990 This second volume in the Limits and Renewals trilogy is an attempt to restate a traditional philosophy of mind drawing on philosophical and poetical resources that are often neglected in modern and postmodern thought and emphasizing the moral and political implications of differing philosophies of mind and value Clark argues that without the traditional concept of the soul we have little reason to believe that rational thought and individual autonomy are either possible or desirable The particular topics covered include the political context of identity claims the possibility of knowledge and the dangers of curiosity the fear of death the philoprogenitive gene and the mind body problem

Open-Hearted People, Soul-Connected Church Tom Bennardo, 2025-04-08 Ask most anyone and they would say they desire honest authentic real relationships Yet few of us experience the soul level connection we long for with other human beings let alone God Fear and pride drive us to mask our truest selves leaving us perpetually disconnected hidden and lonely God made us for something profoundly better an open hearted courageous honesty that liberates us from a life of guardedness and self protection and has the power to radically transform our approach to Christian community In fact it's those things about ourselves we're most afraid to reveal that lead to the kind of love and acceptance we yearn for This book is your call to embrace and practice heart level honesty and authenticity in this age of artificiality As you learn to engage your world with your soul wide open you'll discover deeper connections with yourself others and God and open avenues for other lonely and disconnected souls to join you there
