Aboriginal Australia Race:

Imagined Destinies Russell McGregor, 2015-09-08 White Australians once confidently if regretfully believed that the Aboriginal people were doomed to extinction Even in the 1950s Australian children were still being taught that the Australian Aboriginals were a dying race who would eventually disappear from the face of the earth In Imagined Destinies Russell McGregor explores the origins and the gradual demise of the doomed race theory which was unquestioned in nineteenth century European thinking and remained uncontested until the 1930s White perceptions of Australia s indigenous people and their future had been shaped by Enlightenment ideas about progress Darwin s new theories on the survival of the fittest and other European philosophical concepts Imagined Destinies provides a challenging analysis and history of an idea which has exerted a powerful influence over white Australian attitudes to and policies for Aboriginal people Indeed its long shadow may still be with us
