Abraham Cowley The Muses Hannibal:

Abraham Cowley Arthur Hobart Nethercot,1967 ABRAHAM COWLEY - THE MUSES'S HANNIBAL Arthur H. Nethercot,1931 Abraham Cowley. The Muse's Hannibal... Arthur H. Nethercot,1967 The Politics of Grace in Early Modern Literature Deni Kasa,2024-03-12 This book tells the story of how early modern poets used the theological concept of grace to reimagine their political communities The Protestant belief that salvation was due to sola gratia or grace alone was originally meant to inspire religious reform But as Deni Kasa shows poets of the period used grace to interrogate the most important political problems of their time from empire and gender to civil war and poetic authority Kasa examines how four writers John Milton Edmund Spenser Aemilia Lanyer and Abraham Cowley used the promise of grace to develop idealized imagined communities and not always egalitarian ones Kasa analyzes the uses of grace to make new space for individual and collective agency in the period but also to validate domination and inequality with poets and the educated elite inserted as mediators between the gift of grace and the rest of the people Offering a literary history of politics in a pre secular age Kasa shows that early modern poets mapped salvation onto the most important conflicts of their time in ways missed by literary critics and historians of political thought Grace Kasa demonstrates was an important means of expression and a way to imagine impossible political ideals Literary Circles and Cultural Communities in Renaissance England Claude J. Summers,Ted-Larry Pebworth,2000 Although the literary circle is widely recognized as a significant feature of Renaissance literary culture it has received remarkably little examination In this collection of essays the authors attempt to explain literary circles and cultural communities in Renaissance England by exploring both actual and imaginary ways in which they were conceived and the various needs they fulfilled The book also pays considerable attention to larger theoretical issues relating to literary circles The essayists raise important questions about the extent to which literary circles were actual constructs or fictional creations Whether illuminating or limiting the circle metaphor itself can be extended or reformulated Some of the authors discuss how particular circles actually operated and some question the very concept of the literary circle Literary Circles and Cultural Communities in Renaissance England will be an important addition to seventeenth century studies Poetry and Sovereignty in the English Revolution Niall Allsopp,2020-05-06 Poetry and Sovereignty in the English Revolution presents a new interpretation of the poetry of the English revolution It focuses on royalist poets who left their cause behind following the abolition of the monarchy exploring how they re imagined the traditional language of allegiance in newly secular artificial and absolutist ways Following the execution of Charles I in 1649 royalists who had sided with the King were left with a significant vacuum to fill Poetry and Sovereignty in the English Revolution charts the poetry of Andrew Marvell Edmund Waller John Dryden William Davenant Abraham Cowley and Margaret Cavendish amongst others in this period It examines the poets close acquaintance with Thomas Hobbes offering new readings of the reception and adaptation of Hobbes s ideas in contemporary poetry A final chapter traces how the poets survived the restoration of the Stuart monarchy showing how they continued to apply their ideas in the heroic drama of the 1660s Poetry and Sovereignty in the English Revolution builds on recent work in both literary criticism and the history of political thought to contextualize royalist poets within a distinctive strain of absolutism inflected by reason of state neostoicism scepticism and anticlericalism It demonstrates a vivid poetic effort to imagine the expanded state delivered by the English Revolution The Encyclopedia of British Literature, 3 Volume Set Gary Day,Jack Lynch,2015-03-09 Provides a comprehensive overview of all aspects of the poetry drama fiction and literary and cultural criticism produced from the Restoration of the English monarchy to the onset of the French Revolution Comprises over 340 entries arranged in A Z format across three fully indexed and cross referenced volumes Written by an international team of leading and emerging scholars Features an impressive scope and range of subjects from courtship and circulating libraries to the works of Samuel Johnson and Sarah Scott Includes coverage of both canonical and lesser known authors as well as entries addressing gender sexuality and other topics that have previously been underrepresented in traditional scholarship Represents the most comprehensive resource available on this period and an indispensable guide to the rich diversity of British writing that ushered in the modern literary era 3 Volumes www.literatureencyclopedia.com
