Abraham Miguel Cardozo Selected Writings:

Abraham Miguel Cardozo Abraham Miguel Cardozo, 2001 Abraham Miguel Cardozo 1627-1706 is known primarily as a follower and defender of the false messiah Sabbatai Zevi. He was that indeed, but he was a great deal more than that as well. Cardozo was one of the most vivid, complex, and original personalities to emerge within Judaism during the seventeenth century. An early modern Jew, he was above all an individual. Like his contemporary Spinoza, Cardozo suffered horribly for his individuality. Yet he remained faithful until his death, his strange, violent, eerily messianic death to what he believed to be the true and authentic Jewish faith. Cardozo deserves to be known for himself. Book jacket Sabbatai Zevi David J. Halperin, 2011-12-01 Sabbatai Zevi stirred up the Jewish world in the mid-seventeenth century by claiming to be the messiah, then stunned it by suddenly converting to Islam. The story is presented here for the first time through contemporary documents written by Sabbatai's followers and by one of his detractors in translations that brilliantly capture the vividness of this landmark episode in early modern Jewish history.

Maimonides Review of Philosophy and Religion Volume 1, 2022, 2022-06-20 The Maimonides Review of Philosophy and Religion is an annual collection of double-blind peer-reviewed articles that seeks to provide a broad international arena for an intellectual exchange of ideas between the disciplines of philosophy, theology, religion, cultural history, and literature and to showcase their multifarious junctures within the framework of Jewish studies. Contributions to the Review place special thematic emphasis on scepticism within Jewish thought and its links to other religious traditions and secular worldviews. The Review is interested in the tension at the heart of matters of reason and faith, rationalism and mysticism, theory and practice, narrativity and normativity, doubt and dogma. This volume features contributions by Reimund Leicht, Gitit Holzman, Jonathan Garb, Anna Lissa, Gianni Paganini, Adi Louria, Hayon Mark, Marion Gondelman, and Jürgen Sarnowsky. This volume features contributions by Jeremy Phillip Brown, Libera Pisano, Jeffrey G. Amshalem, Maria Vittoria Comacchi, Jonatan Meir, Rebecca Kneller, Rowe Isaac, Slater Michela, Torbidoni Guido, Bartolucci, and Tamir Karkason.

Dissident Rabbi Yaacob Dweck, 2019-08-06 In 1665, as Jews abandoned reason for the ecstasy of enthusiasm for self-proclaimed Messiah Sabbetai Zevi, Jacob Sasportas watched in horror. Dweck tells the story of the Sephardic rabbi who challenged Sabbetai Zevi's improbable claims and warned his fellow Jews that their Messiah was not the answer to their prayers.

The Essential Hayim Greenberg Hayim Greenberg, 2017-02-15 This landmark collection showcases the writings of Hayim Greenberg, a founder of the Labor Zionist movement in America and a foremost writer, thinker, and activist in the fields of twentieth-century Jewish culture and politics.

Jewish Cryptotheologies of Late Modernity Agata Bielik-Robson, 2014-08-13 This book aims to interpret Jewish Philosophy in terms of the Marrano phenomenon as a conscious clinamen of philosophical forms used in order to convey a secret message which cannot find an open articulation. The Marrano phenomenon is employed here in the domain of modern philosophical thought where an analogous tendency can be seen: the clash of an open idiom and a secret meaning which transforms both the medium and the message Focussing on key figures of late modern twentieth century Jewish thought Hermann Cohen Gershom Scholem Walter Benjamin Franz Rosenzweig Theodor Adorno Ernst Bloch Jacob Taubes Emmanuel Levinas and Jacques Derrida this book demonstrates how their respective manners of conceptualization swerve from the philosophical mainstream along the Marrano secret curve Analysing their unique contribution to the unfinished project of modernity including issues of the future of the Enlightenment modern nihilism and post secular negotiation with religious heritage this book will be essential reading for students and researchers with an interest in Jewish Studies and Philosophy Celtic Spirituality Oliver Davies, Thomas O'Loughlin, 1999 This volume offers translations of numerous texts from the Celtic tradition from the 6th through the 13th centuries in a cross section of genres and forms The Burden of Silence Cengiz Sisman, 2017 This is the first comprehensive social intellectual and religious history of the wide spread Sabbatean movement from its birth in the Ottoman Empire in the seventeenth century to the Republic of Turkey in the first half of the twentieth century claiming that they owed their survival to the internalization of the Kabbalistic burden of silence Angelic Spirituality Steven Chase, 2002 This is a comprehensive introduction to a rapidly growing subject and provides key resources for thinking about key aspects of television studies It begins with a critical evaluation of approaches that can be used to study television and introduces institutional textual cultural economic production and audience centred ways of researching and analysing television Ben: Sonship and Jewish Mysticism Moshe Idel, 2007 This book constitutes the first attempt to address the category of Sonship in Jewish mystical literature as a whole a category much more vast than ever imagined By this survey not only can the mystical forms of Sonship in Judaism be better understood but the concept of Sonship in religion in general can also be enriched Kabbalistic Manuscripts and Textual Theory Daniel Abrams, 2010 Kabbalistic Manuscripts and Textual Theory uncovers the unstated assumptions and expectations of scribes and scholars who fashioned editions from manuscripts of Jewish mystical literature This study offers a theory of kabbalistic textuality in which the material book the printed page no less than handwritten manuscripts serves as the site for textual dialogue between Jewish mystics of different periods and locations The refashioning of the text through the process of reading and commenting that takes place on the page in the margins and between the lines blurs the boundaries between the traditionally defined roles of author reader commentator and editor This study shows that kabbalists and academic editors reinvented the text in their own image as part of a fluid textual process that was nothing short of transformative This book is certainly monumental offering in its seven hundred pages a wealth of documentation and distilled argument that manages to be both comprehensive in its materials and transparent in its critical insights It is rare indeed that a work of such formidable scholarship can actually be a pleasure to read and convincing in its elucidation of what are often extremely complex documentary circumstances and editorial traditions From the foreword by David Greetham Index to Jewish Periodicals, 2004 An author and subject index to selected and American Anglo Jewish journals of general and scholarly interests Crypto-judaism, Madness, and the Female

Quixote Norman Toby Simms, 2004 Psychohistorian Simms an American and Israeli citizen who lives in New Zealand looks closely at Female Quixote the 1752 the English narrative by Lennox bypassing rather than challenging the current feminist post colonialist and post modernist perspectives It deals with a humane and sympathet Early Protestant Spirituality
