Deadly Refuge:

A Night and a Day Hesba Stretton (pseud. [i.e. Sarah Smith.]), 1876 City of Refuge Krzysztof Wodiczko, 2009 City of Refuge is artist Krzysztof Wodiczko's ambitious proposal to create a literal memorial for the 9/11 attacks fusing politics and passion and showing a unique commitment to resistance City of Refuge A 9/11 Memorial is a fascinating insight into Krzysztof Wodiczko's practice the political and personal concepts pushing his project forward and the idea of social responsibility infused in his work It is a proposal parallel to the World Trade Center Memorial but with the aim of provoking a more active and critical commemoration of the September 11 terrorist attacks understood in their historical and political context and in the light of their domestic and international fallout Drawing his main argument from the ethical philosophy of Emmanuel Levinas Wodiczko imagines a memorial that is at once utopian and continuous with the concrete realities of the post 9/11 climate of fear permeating the Western world It is a passionate attempt at readdressing the narratives of closure hostility and terror through a memorial that encourages open critical and democratic discourse The resulting City of Refuge is a memorial in action on one hand an ongoing critique of a passive remembering of the attack and an investigation into the deeper causes of terror and on the other a visionary and ambitious public art project in New York reckoning with the catastrophe and its political implications in terms of a cosmopolitan democracy New and unpublished hand drawn sketches and digital montages animate the text creating a vivid picture of memory at work Wodiczko's project is complemented by a concentration on learning and proactive programs of engagement encouraging new and informed practical initiatives paving the way to a less unjust world The book is supported by text from leading scholars in a variety of disciplines Mark Jarzombek Daniel Bertrand Monk Lisa Saltzman Kirk Savage Andrew Shanken and Mechtild Widrich Their contributions constitute a forum published alongside Wodiczko's text ensuring an engaging and timely debate Harry Alan Towers Dave Mann, 2014-11-03 Harry Alan Towers reputation rests upon a corpus of 95 low budget productions shot post haste in every corner of the globe He took an integral part however in the development of the protocols that now underpin much transnational film production and he must be regarded as a pioneer Towers slash and burn strategy focused on parasitic back to back productions funded by rights bundles that were pre sold globally This strategy was substantially derived from his early days in broadcasting wherein he acted as a go between in the American and the British Commonwealth markets Though he became adept at procuring funds from pariah regimes and black market economies primarily he continued to act as a broker bringing together American equity investment and European finance under the auspices of EC co production agreements He was also quick to exploit the burgeoning niche markets becoming available in the wake of technological developments and government initiatives Services of Worship for Boys, 1921 200 Healing Prayers for Catholic Women Lisa B.
