From publisher description: The National Dean's List, 1986-87 Educational Communications, Incorporated, 1987-11 The National Dean's List Educational Communications, Incorporated, 1998 The Crisis, 1956-08 The Crisis, founded by W. E. B. Du Bois, is the official publication of the NAACP. It is a journal of civil rights, history, politics, and culture, and seeks to educate and challenge its readers about issues that continue to plague African Americans and other communities of color. For nearly 100 years, The Crisis has been the magazine of opinion and thought leaders, decision makers, peacemakers, and justice seekers. It has chronicled, informed, educated, entertained, and in many instances set the economic, political, and social agenda for our nation and its multi-ethnic citizens. Advanced Management for Deans Terri Friel, 2016-05-03 Deanships are often OTJ roles with little prior guidance. This book, the second in the Management for Deans series, shares advanced strategies from global deans on managing boards, planning donors and careers. Whether you're a current or aspiring dean, this series offers insights to accelerate success and navigate challenges effectively. Dean's List Art Chansky, 2025-05-01 In 1961, a thirty-year-old soft-spoken coach took over a basketball program that had been rocked by accusations and internal concerns regarding recruiting violations and the image of the team. Today, that coach has won nearly 80 percent of his games, finished first in the Atlantic Coast Conference 17 times, won 12 ACC Tournament titles, one Olympic gold medal, an NIT trophy, and two NCAA championships. Among the athletes he has put on the court are players named Jordan Stackhouse, Worthy Perkins, and Wallace, no fewer than 24 NBA first-round draft choices. And the Dean Smith story—a story of competition, compassion, and basketball genius—is a saga unfolding today, a legend of American sports. This beautiful volume, illustrated with full-color photographs, is a basketball odyssey of three decades, from Dean Edwards Smith's first coaching job at the Air Force Academy with the golf team to his most recent and 22nd consecutive appearance in the NCAA Tournament. In between are lean years and great years, bitter defeats, stunning victories, and vintage Carolina comebacks, as Smith took over the badly shaken Tar Heel program from the legendary Frank McGuire. The Dean's List will conjure up vivid memories for college hoop fans, such as the Tar Heels' injury-riddled run to the 1977 national title game and heartbreaking loss to Marquette, the fervent battles with archrival Duke, and the incredible NCAA championship victories over Georgetown in 1982 and Michigan in 1993. And here too are the contests waged outside the public eye: recruiting struggles for such players as Tom McMillen, David Thompson, and Phil Ford, as well as the racially charged controversy that surrounded North Carolina's first black scholarship athlete, Charlie Scott. Away from the court, we see the tough and tender

personal qualities that have allowed Dean Smith to run a program beyond reproach and graduate 97 percent of his players
