Dear Jim Reflections On The Beauty Of Angling:

Dear Jim Alexander Schwab, 2004 From a lively pub in Ireland to the heat vibrating Seychelles from a boy's float on a canal to an impossible tangle of flyline this book finds a common theme in hundreds of different fishing experiences and in the paraphernalia that surrounds fishing And that theme is beauty Schwab's stunning black and white photographs which illustrate his line of thought are a startlingly fresh look at familiar things Has ever a hook or a fish scale looked so lovely Schwab shows us this beauty and he challenges us to discover why this is so in this thought provoking book

Ethnozoology Romulo Romeu Nobrega Alves, Ulysses Paulino Albuquerque, 2017-10-23 Ethnozoology Animals In Our Lives represents the first book about this discipline providing a discussion on key themes on human animal interactions and their implications along with recent major advances in research Humans share the world with a bewildering variety of other animals and have interacted with them in different ways This variety of interactions both past and present is investigated through ethnozoology which is a hybrid discipline structured with elements from both the natural and social sciences as it seeks to understand how humans have perceived and interacted with faunal resources throughout history In a broader context ethnozoology and its companion discipline ethnobotany form part of the larger body of the science of ethnobiology In recent years the importance of ethnozoological ethnobiological studies has increasingly been recognized unsurprisingly given the strong human influence on biodiversity From the perspective of ethnozoology the book addresses all aspects of human connection animals and health from its use in traditional medicine to bioprospecting derivatives of fauna for pharmaceuticals with expert contributions from leading researchers in the field Draws on editors and contributors extensive research experience and studies covering ethnozoology and ethnobiology Covers all aspects of human animal interaction through the lens of this emerging discipline with coverage of both domestic and wild animal topics Presents topics of great interest to a variety of researchers including those in wildlife conservation biologists ecologists conservationists and domestic related disciplines psychologists sociologists
