Death and Spirituality Kenneth Doka, John Morgan, 2016-12-05 An elderly Chinese immigrant hospitalized with terminal disease requests to burn incense A 30 year old Roman Catholic gay male dying of AIDS is consumed by deepening moral guilt troubled by beliefs he thought he abandoned years ago A mother whose teenage son died of an aneurism is angry at God over his death yet fearful of expressing that anger lest He punish her again A young widower seemingly has difficulty expressing grief believing it to be a sign of weak faith All of these examples illustrate the kinds of issues that clinicians and counselors constantly encounter For although North American society has long been characterized as secular this does not deny the potency of spiritual concerns and religious values on the individual level Polls affirm that vast majorities of North Americans both believe in God and consider religion important in their lives This is clearly evident when one faces the crisis of dying or bereavement For one of the strengths of belief is that it provides support and succor at a time when secular explanations are largely silent For these reasons educators and clinicians have long recognized the significance that religious and spiritual themes have in counseling with the dying and bereaved Yet in cultures as religiously diverse as the U S and Canada caregivers and educators may feel inadequate to the task Death and Spirituality addresses this need Specifically it seeks to reach two perhaps overlapping audiences First it considers the needs death related counselors and educators seeking to provide them with both a sense of the norm of religious tradition and the religious and spiritual issues that might arise in illness and bereavement as well as suitable interventions approaches and resources that might be useful in assisting clients in examining and resolving such issues The book also speaks to the complementary needs of clergy who also may wish to assist parishioners and others as they face the spiritual and psychological crisis of dying and grief

Death, Dying and Beyond ALOK PANDEY, 2010-11-20 The one thing that is at once most predictable and unpredictable about life is death Yet man lives forgetting death as if he were immortal Between these two a visible manifestation of death and an innate sense of immortality hangs the balance of life a paradox which we do not easily understand What if death is not an end but a passage to another life What if rebirth is not about retribution but is a form of evolution What if life and death are not opposites but work towards a common goal There must be a larger picture a missing piece of the puzzle to complete the story and make our understanding whole How should we deal with trauma and loss suffering and pain and other ethical and existential issues Death Dying and Beyond is an attempt to find answers to these and many other related issues theoretically and practically supported by anecdotes and experiences arising from brushes with death

Death and Dying, Spirituality, and Religions Lucy Bregman,2003 The death awareness movement provides a new language for speaking about death and dying by stressing death dying and bereavement as meaningful human experiences beyond their medical context This movement appears secular and detached from religion although its advocates embrace spirituality However is this separation from religion realistic Death and Dying Spirituality and Religions refutes that view and undermines the popular opposition between spirituality and religion The death awareness movement is deeply indebted to popular Christianity Judaism and Buddhism as well as tribal religions for their ideas and images Urging a thoughtful theological response this book illustrates how such diverse religious legacies contribute to contemporary views of death and dying

The Sacred Art of Dying Kenneth Kramer,1988 Examines how each of the major religions looks at death by including stories teachings and rituals that present a comparative religious meaning of death and afterlife Written in textbook style with journal exercises at the end of each chapter

Spiritual Perspectives on Death and Dying Bernice H Hill Ph D,Bernice H. Hill,2015-09-22 In Spiritual Perspectives on Death and Dying the author gathers basic insights from five major sources C G Jung the LSD research of Stanislav Grof the Hindu and Tibetan Buddhist traditions and the writings of Alice Bailey The sequence of events of the dying process the fundamental journey of the soul and the thoughtful advice from these sources are reviewed What unfolds is a vista of challenge and hope

Life, Death and Spirituality Richard E Jensen Ph D,Richard Jensen,2015-03-30 Perhaps the greatest human disappointment is that we all die This book deals with problems of living and acceptance of death It provides knowledge and skill resources needed to come to terms with both life and death Many people react by denying pretending or minimizing They may harbor a fantasy that we all live in a world everlasting and that we too are everlasting Once born we have a 100%

chance of dying The only question is when The institutional answer to our disappointment is organized religion prayer theology reassurance and externalizing the problem of death to a distant idealized and personal God Deep down inside we all know the truth This book is based on a simple notion we can all learn to cope with the issues of living in a natural world in which we die Although narrower in scope this book is in the tradition of the large questions which are always relevant to human kind For example the meaning of life how to live a life what is truth where truth and justice lie This book takes a substantial departure from the supernatural world offered by many world religious traditions and the personal and institutionalized denial supported by prayer to an external personal God An analysis of the problem is provided together with a path toward a personal solution The path requires the seeker to do both intellectual and emotional work We need to understand the problem that is smothering us and we need to equip ourselves for action The strategies offered for making needed changes include skepticism problem analysis knowledge and understanding skill development confronting the realities of the natural world and coming to terms with who we are as people In addition to conceptual approaches there are practical remedies incorporated in a methods section These include personal growth refuting obsolete beliefs relaxation skills and meditation skills The connection between deep muscle relaxation meditation and avenues of personal and psychological change are developed The reader is invited to become a new person of their own making The book provides only the opportunity and the means Readers will need to deliver the motivation the sustained energy and the tenacity to make the life changes they wish to achieve At its core this is a self help book written by a psychologist However the emphasis here is more fundamental than learning behavioral self regulation or being a fully functioning person The focus is on coping with the problems of life and death More than getting our affairs in order we need to come to terms with ourselves In order to do so we need to cultivate the grit to face up to the many challenging questions before us Issues like anxiety mood communication skills and behavioral tune up remain highly relevant but there are much larger issues The book offers a path to both good living and good dying

Life After Death Alan Segal, 2010-06-23 A magisterial work of social history Life After Death illuminates the many different ways ancient civilizations grappled with the question of what exactly happens to us after we die In a masterful exploration of how Western civilizations have defined the afterlife Alan F Segal weaves together biblical and literary scholarship sociology history and philosophy A renowned scholar Segal examines the maps of the afterlife found in Western religious texts and reveals not only what various cultures believed but how their notions reflected their societies realities and ideals and why those beliefs changed over time He maintains that the afterlife is the mirror in which a society arranges its concept of the self The composition process for Judaism Christianity and Islam begins in grief and ends in the victory of the self over death Arguing that in every religious tradition the afterlife represents the ultimate reward for the good Segal combines historical and anthropological data with insights gleaned from religious and philosophical writings to explain the following mysteries why the Egyptians insisted on an afterlife in heaven while the body was embalmed in a tomb on earth why the Babylonians viewed the dead as living in underground prisons why the Hebrews remained silent about life after death during the period of the First Temple yet embraced it in the Second Temple period 534 B C E 70 C E and why Christianity placed the afterlife in the center of its belief system He discusses the inner dialogues and arguments within Judaism and Christianity showing the underlying dynamic behind them as well as the ideas that mark the differences between the two religions In a thoughtful examination of the influence of biblical views of heaven and martyrdom on Islamic beliefs he offers a fascinating perspective on the current troubling rise of Islamic fundamentalism In tracing the organic historical relationships between sacred texts and communities of belief and comparing the visions of life after death that have emerged throughout history Segal sheds a bright revealing light on the intimate connections between notions of the afterlife the societies that produced them and the individual s search for the ultimate meaning of life on earth The Grace in

Dying Kathleen Dowling Singh,2013-08-06 This wise and moving meditation on mortality should give solace to those facing death as well as to their friends and family Publishers Weekly In The Grace of Dying Kathleen Dowling Singh illuminates the profound psychological and spiritual transformations experiences by the dying as the natural process of death reconnects them with the source of their being Examining the end of life in the light of current psychology religious wisdom and compassionate medical science Singh offers a fresh deeply comforting message of hope and courage Written for those aware that their life is coming to an end those who care for the dying and ultimately for all of us who must inevitably face death The Grace in Dying reveals that dying is the most transforming powerful and spiritually rich of life s experiences The Spiritual

Lives of Bereaved Parents Dennis Klass,1999 How parents lose find or relocate spiritual anchors are described by Dennis Klass Descriptions are grounded in the scholarly study of comparative religions There Is Another Life! Mattie

Cody,2013-07 There Is Another Life is a compelling and revealing journey of a mothers encounter with signs and wonders beyond the scope of imagination It answers the hard questions we ask after the loss of a child and or love ones It will give hope to the hopeless and strength to those without strength It is a true in depth experience of a woman after being plunged into a place of grief sorrow and devastating despair only to rise to a place of hope understanding and reconciliation knowing the truth concerning life after death both spiritual death and physical death after tragic murder of her only son Engulfed in darkness shattered in pieces my heart slivered I was propelled into a dark and dreary grave but through this miraculous journey from victim to victor to victory I ve seen a glimpse into another life changed my life forever Grief no longer holds me captive Spiritual Truths and Experiences of Life After Death Gert Niemand,2013-01 Most of the information in this book came from Angels and Spiritual Masters who are living in the greater World of Spirit Therefore I would like to thank all the Angels and Masters who came down to do their work for God in Love and with Love and all their helpers who helped me to fulfill an oath I made During an out of the body experience while standing at Mountain Zion in the Presence of God I promised Him that I would tell all the people the truth about Him and His Spiritual Messengers the Angels and other life in the Spirit World All the Angels and Masters spoken to have nothing but Love for God their fellows spirits all of Mankind and the Animal Kingdom Life as we know it continuo after death in a slightly different format and regardless of what we say or believe every one of us knows deep in our inner being that we came from the world of spirit and we knows deep inside ourselves that that world is real and that we must one day return to it Regardless of what we say or believe we know within ourselves about the Presence of God I have used most of these short stories as talks during church services because Angels advised me what to write down and to use what they have shown me in the world of spirit as the talk Therefore most of the information in this book is from spiritual beings they are the real authors of this book I am just an instrument used by them as a voice box in the wilderness of Babel to explain some of the wonderful stories we read of in the bible In this way am I also complying with the vow I made to God
