WHERE THE RED FERN GROWS

Billy Colman wanted nothing more in the world than to own a pair of hounds for hunting raccoons. After two long years of hard work and determination, Billy earned enough money to become the proud owner of the two most exceptional hunting dogs the Ozarks had ever seen. As a devoted threesome, Billy and his two dogs explored the dark hills and river bottoms of Cherokee country, proving their loyalty and bravery in the face of danger, time and time again. This sensitive, moving, and unforgettable story will enthrall readers young and old.

Wilson Rawls was born on a small farm in the Ozarks, where he spent his youth in the heart of the Cherokee nation, hunting with his old blue tick hound—his only companion. His first writing was done with his fingers in the dust of the country roads, marking the beginning of his secret ambition to write. Years later, after giving up all hope of becoming a published author, Wilson Rawls burned every manuscript he ever wrote, but when he rekindled his passion for writing, he recreated the manuscripts he had burned.

Anthony Heald's filmwork includes The Client, The Pelican Brief, Searching for Bobby Fisher, Silence of the Lambs, and Postcards from the Edge. He has starred on Broadway in Anything Goes and Love! Valour! Compassion!
