Death Is A Festival:

Death is a Festival João José Reis, 2003 This award winning social history of death and funeral rites during the early decades of Brazil's independence from Portugal focuses on the Cemiterada movement in Salvador capital of the province of Bahia The book opens with a lively account of the popu Halloween and Other Festivals of Death and Life Jack

Santino, 1994 Jack Santino has put together the first collection of essays to examine the evolution of Halloween from its Celtic origins through its adaptation into modern culture Using a wide variety of perspectives and approaches the thirteen essayists examine customs communities and material culture to reveal how Halloween has manifested itself throughout all aspects of our society to become not just a marginal survivor of a dying tradition but a thriving contemporary post industrial festival Its steadily increasing popularity despite overcommercialization and criticism is attributed to its powerful symbolism that employs both pre Christian images and concepts from popular culture to appeal to groups of all ages orientations and backgrounds

Greek Festivals, Modern and Ancient Evi Johanne Håland, 2017-06-20 This volume represents a multi faceted cross period product of fieldwork conducted in contemporary Greece in combination with ancient sources Based on a comparative analysis of important religious festivals and life cycle rituals the book investigates the importance of cults connected with the Greek female sphere and its relation to the official male dominated ideology Within these festivals are encountered supplementary complementary or competing ideologies connected with men and women and it is shown that there is not a one way power structure or male dominance within Greek culture but rather competing powers linked to the two sexes and their respective spheres In addition to gender the book also explores the relationship between the great and little societies in the form of official and popular religion As such it will serve to broaden the reader's knowledge of ancient but also modern society because it concerns the relationship between various spheres of life which each possess their own competing and overlapping but also co existing value systems
