Death Of Adam Essays On Modern Thought:

The Death of Adam Marilynne Robinson, 2005-11 In these ten essays Robinson brilliantly addresses subjects that have become the territory of specialists religion history the state of society The writing is contrarian in method and spirit according to the author A Political Companion to Marilynne Robinson Shannon L. Mariotti, Joseph H. Lane Jr., 2016-11-08 Marilynne Robinson is arguably one of the most important writers of our time Her voice resonates across the richly imagined American landscapes within which she grounds her stories of love and loss alienation and belonging injustice and redemption Robinson s award winning body of work including Gilead winner of the 2005 Pulitzer Prize for Fiction and the National Book Critics Circle Award Home winner of the Orange Prize and the Los Angeles Times Book Prize and Lila winner of the National Book Critics Circle Award has cultivated admiration all over the world offering readers new and profound interpretations of the meanings of transience presence convention and resistance In A Political Companion to Marilynne Robinson Shannon L. Mariotti and Joseph H Lane Jr assemble both rising and established political theorists to explore the juxtaposition of Robinson s nonfiction works and her novels and to examine their connections to contemporary political issues The collection analyzes Robinson s writings on American democracy community and freedom and it includes an engrossing interview with the author specifically conducted for this volume From an exploration of the democratic potential in being a housekeeper of homelessness to a study of models of action against racial injustice this volume provides fascinating new insights into Robinson s work and how it reflects and reassesses American political culture and theory The Matter of High Words Robert Chodat, 2017-08-18 In a world of matter how can we express what matters When the explanations of the natural sciences become powerfully precise and authoritative what is the status of our highest words the languages that articulate our norms and orient our lives The Matter of High Words examines a constellation of American writers who in the decades since World War II have posed these questions in distinctive ways Walker Percy Marilynne Robinson Ralph Ellison Stanley Cavell and David Foster Wallace are all self consciously post WWII authors attuned to the fragmentation and skepticism that have defined so much of the literary and critical culture of the last century and more Yet they also attempt to reach back to older forms of thought and writing that are often thought to have dried up the traditions of prophecy of wisdom literature of the sage Working within this dual inheritance these authors are drawn equally to both art and argument showing and telling shifting continually between narrative and discursive genres In their essays they act as moralists promoting the broad abstract concepts that might inspire action in the face of naturalistic reduction community family courage fraternity marriage friendship temperance judgment In their narratives they offer particular lives in particular settings thick descriptions that give flesh to such high words Rarely do these movements between genres generate a tidy equilibrium where their essays speak of cooperation and redemption their narratives display alienation loss and failure But in pursuing such risky unorthodox strategies these postwar sages are not only able to challenge some of the dominant naturalistic theories of the last several decades cognitive science neo Darwinian theory social science the fact value divide in analytic philosophy Through five chapters of detailed analysis and close reading Chodat explores the question of whether vocabularies of ought and ought not can still emerge today and how these concepts might be embodied and whether such ideas might be found in things

Understanding Marilynne Robinson Alexander John Engebretson, 2017-11-06 A comprehensive study of the award winning Midwestern author of fiction and nonfiction Alex Engebretson offers the first comprehensive study of Marilynne Robinson's fiction and essays to date providing an overview of the author's life themes and literary and religious influences Understanding Marilynne Robinson examines this author of three highly acclaimed novels and recipient of the National Book Critics Circle Award for fiction the Pulitzer Prize for fiction the Orange Prize for fiction and the National Humanities Medal Through close readings of the novels and essay collections Engebretson uncovers the unifying elements of Robinson's work a dialogue with liberal Protestantism an emphasis on regional settings the marked influence of nineteenth century American literature and the theme of home The study begins with Housekeeping Robinson's haunting debut novel which undertakes a feminist revision of the Western genre Twenty four years later Robinson began a literary project that would bring her national recognition three novels set in a small rural Iowa town The first was Gilead which took up the major American themes of race the legacy of the Civil War and the tensions between secular and religious lives Two more Gilead novels followed Home and Lila both of which display Robinson's gift for capturing the mysterious dynamics of sin and grace In Understanding Marilynne Robinson Engebretson also reviews her substantial body of non fiction which demonstrates a dazzling intellectual range from the contemporary science religion debates to Shakespeare to the fate of liberal democracy Throughout this study Engebretson makes the argument for Marilynne Robinson as an essential deeply unfashionable visionary presence within today's literary scene
