Death Resurrection Immortality:

The Death of Death Rabbi Neil Gillman, PhD, 2011-11-16 Does death end life or is it the passage from one stage of life to another In The Death of Death noted theologian Neil Gillman offers readers an original and compelling argument that Judaism a religion often thought to pay little attention to the afterlife not only presents us with rich ideas on this subject but delivers a deathblow to death itself Combining astute scholarship with keen historical theological and liturgical insights Gillman outlines the evolution of Jewish thought about bodily resurrection and spiritual immortality Beginning with the near silence of the Bible on the afterlife he traces the development of these two doctrines through Jewish history He also describes why today somewhat surprisingly more contemporary Jewish scholars including Gillman have unabashedly reaffirmed the notion of bodily resurrection In this innovative and personal synthesis Gillman creates a strikingly modern statement on resurrection and immortality The Death of Death gives new and fascinating life to an ancient debate This new work is an intellectual and spiritual milestone for all of us interested in the meaning of life as well as the meaning of death Death,

Life in Christ William Robert West, 2015-09-29 What do you believe about souls There are many very different doctrines taught in the world today concerning souls that are believed to be in all humans By most a soul is believed to be something that is wholly apart from the person a soul is in that a soul is something that is that is believed to be complete in its self without the person it will live after the person it is in is dead it is believed that a soul will exist forever without the person it will never be dead therefore a soul cannot be resurrected from the dead It is believed that a soul must live someplace forever and it will live either in Heaven or Hell even if there is no resurrection The doctrine of unconditional immortality of a deathless soul being in a person and that soul leaving that person at the death of the person makes it impossible for Christ to have give His life to save that soul from death if a soul had immortality it would already have life and could never not have life all Christ could do is give it a reward or punish it Immortality of the Soul or Resurrection of the Dead? Oscar Cullmann,2000-11-29 Glimpsing the Future Murray J. Whitelaw,1987 The Resurrection of Immortality Mark S. McLeod-Harrison,2017-07-31 If humans are not capable of immortality then eschatological doctrines of heaven and hell make little sense On that Christians agree But not all Christians agree on whether humans are essentially immortal Some hold that the early church was right to borrow from the ancient Greek philosophers and to bring their sense of immortality to bear on the interpretation of biblical passages about the afterlife Others however suggest that we are inherently mortal and only conditionally immortal This latter view is usually associated with an annihilationist interpretation of the doctrine of hell and a rejection of eternal torment In a philosophical analysis and argument McLeod Harrison proposes that humans are indeed immortal but not essentially so But neither are we immortal accidentally or conditionally Instead immortality is an enduring property a property we cannot lose once created McLeod Harrison carefully delineates the sense of immortality he defends and provides a broadly Christian philosophical argument for it The argument if correct leaves the recent suggestion that the unredeemed are annihilated on unsteady metaphysical feet However McLeod Harrison does not defend eternal conscious punishment for the unredeemed but suggests some ways to think about the possibility of a universal salvation Life In Christ William Robert West,2020-03-05 What is a man Are all persons born with immortal souls in them or do only the saved put on immortality at the resurrection Is a person a three part being an animal body with both a soul and a spirit that one or both will live after the body is dead This is one of the most important questions of all time It has more influence on our conception of our nature our view of life in this world and our view of life after death than any other question A Statement on Death, Resurrection and Immortality Lutheran Church--Missouri Synod. The Intertextuality of Paul's Apocalyptic Discourse Doosuk Kim, 2023-05-08 This book attempts to investigate two strands in a single work apocalyptic Paul and intertextuality First what does apocalyptic Paul mean Is it synonymous to eschatology as a theological notion or the end time mystery Many seminal works have delved into the intriguing yet unorganized notion of the apocalyptic Instead of attempting to provide a universal definition of the apocalyptic the author presents his understanding of the phenomenon particularly in the cultural realm The author contends that apocalyptic is neither all about the end time event nor merely a literary genre but an interpretive lens to understand the world and social phenomena one that is shaped and developed through culture and society Accordingly the term apocalyptic Paul implies how Paul views and understands the world history and supernatural phenomena through interaction with his cultural texts and context Second the author also suggests that intertextuality is not only about comparative literature study Rather intertextuality refers to cultural semiotics a sign system to deliver the meaning of text Based on this notion of intertextuality the author interprets how Paul envisages multiple phenomena heavenly ascent resurrection afterlife the origins of sin and two ages within his cultural context
