Death Week Exploring The Dying Process:

Death Week Peter R. Prunkl, Rebecca L. Berry, 1989 First published in 1989 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Chronic Sorrow Susan Roos, 2002 Grief and loss are burgeoning concerns for professional disciplines such as nursing social work family therapy psychology psychiatry law religion and medicine Although understanding has increased in virtually all other areas of grief and loss chronic sorrow has received scant attention Chronic sorrow is a natural grief reaction to losses that are not final but continue to be present in the life of the griever This book views chronic sorrow in a life span perspective and reveals the effect on the griever and the people close to them This book fills a void in the literature and attempts to develop a comprehensive analysis of chronic sorrow that will secure its position within the field of grief and loss Voices of Bereavement Joan Beder, 2013-01-11 Voices of Bereavement presents counselors with specific sometimes unusual bereavement situations and their subsequent treatment Joan Beder blends theoretical content with suggestions for intervention helping the reader appreciate how theory informs practice In addition a section on counselor struggles focuses on what feelings were provoked in the counselor during each case and how these feelings were managed Widow to Widow Phyllis R. Silverman, 2004-11-23 Widow to Widow shares the experiences of widows who have found comfort and continuity in mutual help and community support programs In the second edition of her pioneering text Phyllis Silverman brings the success of the original widow to widow program into the 21st century preparing a new generation of community leaders clergy counselors hospice staff social workers and the widowed themselves to organize and implement mutual help programs Parent Grief Paul C. Rosenblatt, 2000 First Published in 2000 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Lives and Deaths Antoon A. Leenaars, 2023-01-06 Edwin S Shneidman is recognized as the central figure in the field of suicidology His writings have taught countless psychologists and other health professionals about the complexity of suicide death and bereavement This collection of his writings spans the entirety of his career and offers a unique insight into the development of his thinking The material is broken down into five parts Psychological Assessment Logic Melville and Murray Suicide and Death and each section includes an introduction by the editor Lives and Deaths is a vital resource for those in suicidology and related fields allowing the reader to sample a variety of selections from Shneidman's work in one compact volume The book is ideal for classroom use by upper level undergraduates and graduate students in the history of suicidology or as a supplemental text in a general suicidology course It is also of interest to clinicians treating high risk patients as well as a more general audience including psychologists social workers crisis counselors and suicide prevention specialists Men Don't Cry-- Women Do Terry L. Martin, Kenneth J. Doka, 2000 Do men and women grieve differently This text while emphasizing that there are many ways to cope with grief offers a refreshing change from the popular gender stereotypes of grief Two patterns of grieving are described an intuitive pattern where individuals experience and express grief in an affective way stereotyped as female and an instrumental pattern where grief is expressed physically or cognitively stereotyped as male A third pattern representing a blending of these two is also introduced Of critical importance is that such patterns are related to but not determined by gender and each has distinct strengths and weaknesses Organized into three main parts this topical new text begins by defining terms introducing and delineating the grief patterns and rooting the book s concept in contemporary theories of grief The second part speculates on factors that may influence individuals patterns of coping with loss e g personality gender culture etc The final part considers implications and therapeutic interventions likely to be effective with different types of grievers When Professionals Weep Renee S. Katz, Therese A. Johnson, 2016-01-22 When Professionals Weep speaks to the humbling and often transformational moments that clinicians experience in their careers as caregivers and healers moments when it is often hard to separate the influence of our own emotional responses and worldviews from the patient s or family s When Professionals Weep addresses these poignant moments when the professional s personal experiences with trauma illness death and loss can subtly often stealthily surface and affect the helping process This edition like the first both validates clinicians experiences and also helps them process and productively address compassion fatigue burnout and secondary traumatic stress New material in the second edition includes increased emphasis on the burgeoning fields of hospice and palliative care organizational countertransference mindfulness and compassionate practice It includes thought provoking cases self assessments and exercises that can be used on an individual dyadic or group basis This volume is an invaluable handbook for practitioners in the fields of medicine mental health social work nursing chaplaincy the allied health sciences psychology and psychiatry

Continuing Bonds Dennis Klass, Phyllis R. Silverman, Steven L. Nickman, 1996 Twenty nine collected essays represent a critical history of Shakespeare s play as text and as theater beginning with Samuel Johnson in 1765 and ending with a review of the Royal Shakespeare Company production in 1991 The criticism centers on three aspects of the play the love friendship debate Occupational Stress in the Care of the Critically Ill, the Dying, and the Bereaved Mary L. S. Vachon, 1987

Facing Death Sandra L. Bertman, 1991 This work draws upon material from the visual arts poetry fiction drama and pop culture to help lead the reader to a heightened awareness of the universal nature of the issues that face the dying and those who care for them The author argues Paperbound Books in Print, 1992 The North Carolina Historical Review, 1990 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 1992 Choice, 1988 Health Progress, 1988-07
