Deadly Risks:

Lethal Risks and New Zealand Police / Ngā Pirihimana o Aotearoa Richard S. Shortt,2023-11-08 This book examines the lethal risks faced by police and traffic officers in Aotearoa New Zealand It tracks lethal risk volume and type across 134 years of the New Zealand Police Ng Pirihimana o Aotearoa s 137 year existence Using data gathered from public records official government reporting and comparative studies it reveals the current situation with regards to lethal risks from 1886 to 2019 The book identifies and presents two lethal risk hierarchies the first for the period 1886 1999 and the second for the period 2000 2019 The hierarchies establish that the lethal risks faced come from Firearms Assaults And potentially Cutting Stabbing attacks It determines that the nature of lethal risk has not changed but rather the volume has reduced meaning today s officers are less likely to be harmed by lethal risk encounters than their predecessors were This volume is an ideal starting point for researchers and practitioners interested in developing further scholarly research on lethal force and lethal risks faced by law enforcement officers and the organization they belong to

Imposing Risk John Oberdiek,2017-09-08 We subject others and are ourselves subjected to risk all the time risk permeates life Despite the ubiquity of risk and its imposition philosophers and legal scholars have devoted little of their attention to the difficult questions stimulated by the pervasiveness of risk When we impose risk upon others what is it that we are doing What is risking s moral significance What moral standards govern the imposition of risk And how should the law respond to it This book highlights these important but neglected questions and offers novel answers to them in a systematic way constructing a normative framework of risk imposition that draws upon a wide range of insights from diverse sources within philosophy and legal theory Oxford Legal Philosophy publishes the best new work in philosophically oriented legal theory It commissions and solicits monographs in all branches of the subject including works on philosophical issues in all areas of public and private law and in the national transnational and international realms studies of the nature of law legal institutions and legal reasoning treatments of problems in political morality as they bear on law and explorations in the nature and development of legal philosophy itself The series represents diverse traditions of thought but always with an emphasis on rigour and originality It sets the standard in contemporary jurisprudence

Preventing Fatal Incidents in School and Youth Group Camps and Excursions Andrew Brookes,2018-05-07 This book approaches the prevention of fatal incidents in outdoor education and related fields through detailed study of past tragedies Although safety in many fields is built on accumulated lessons from past incidents tragedies on school or youth group camps and excursions are so infrequent and so widely scattered that knowledge from previous incidents can elude those who would benefit Nevertheless the emergence of unlearned lessons from the past weighs heavily when those affected by a tragedy judge whether an incident should have been prevented This book provides a foundation for a detailed and comprehensive understanding of fatality prevention in outdoor education and in youth camps and excursions It compiles examines and analyses information on fatal incidents that have occurred over many decades involving many kinds of groups and endeavours from around the globe No previous work has attempted this task
