Dennis J. Horton,2009-06-10 Dennis Horton highlights the shape and function of the death and resurrection motif by applying William Freedman s criteria of a literary motif to the Acts narrative By analyzing the statements about death and resurrection together with the examples of this messianic pattern among the experiences of major and minor characters the motif becomes clear This central theme then becomes intensified through contrast with a secondary motif that of death and decay Death and Resurrection provides a clear example of a biblical motif and how it develops and functions within the narrative serving as a valuable guide for future studies of biblical motifs The work also supplies a needed balance between the extremes of past and present Lukan scholarship by considering the combined effect of suffering and renewed life within a single motif Both the statements and actions of the characters reveal the importance of the two elements for Lukan theology and soteriology The function of the motif derives from its usage within the narrative and proves insightful for gaining a better understanding of the aesthetic quality of the story while simultaneously showing how the narrator skillfully wields the motif to provide encouragement to the followers of The Way to issue a warning to would be persecutors and to deliver an evangelistic message to potential converts such as the God fearers The messianic pattern of death and resurrection becomes a heuristic tool that the narrator carefully applies to create a potent motif with a multifaceted message for a growing and often suffering Christian community

Did Jesus Rise From the Dead? Gary R. Habermas, Antony Flew, Terry L.

Miethe,2003-12-04 This is the most important question regarding the claims of the Christian faith Certainly no question in modern religious history demands more attention or interest as witnessed by the vast body of literature dealing with the Resurrection James I Packer says it well in his response to this debate When Christians are asked to make good their claim that this scheme is truth they point to Jesus resurrection The Easter event so they affirm demonstrated Jesus deity validated his teaching attested to the completion of his work of atonement for sin confirms his present cosmic dominion and coming reappearance as Judge assures us that his personal pardon presence and power in people s lives today is fact and guarantees each believer s own reemodiment by Resurrection in the world to come The Apostle Paul considered the Resurrection to be the cornerstone of the Christian faith If Jesus did not rise from the dead the whole structure Christianity collapses Paul tells us in 1 Corinthians 15 14 17 And if Christ has not been raised our preaching is useless and so is you faith More than that we are then found to be false witnesses about God And if Christ has not been raised your faith is futile emphasis added The

The Crux of Christianity Christian Benjamin,2019-05-07 Many Christians today celebrate many Religious ceremonies without having an understanding of what the ceremonies they celebrate entail Were it not for a seasonal celebration of sort many Christians could attend Church services for one whole year without listening to one single message on the death and resurrection of Christ which form the core of our Christian faith Had Christ not died and resurrected we will be exactly like any other religious sect or organization but alas the empty tomb is there to prove that because he lives we have hope that we too shall live And if Christ be not raised your faith is vain ye are yet in your sins 1 Cor 15 17 After his death and resurrection in order not to make known the manifestation of God s power Matthew 28 12 15 state that money was given to the soldiers to scuttle the resurrection story but they failed Till today a lot of messages still go on even from several pulpits with focus on money matters relegating resurrection matters This is an error The resurrection story and the benefits of the resurrection ought to be on the forefront of all messages This book exposes the benefits of the resurrection to everybody who will decide to believe and appropriate what Jesus has done 1 We have redemption through his blood In whom we have redemption through his blood even the forgiveness of sins Colossians 1 14 2 As we bear witness like the Apostles to his resurrection the power of his resurrection manifests in our lives 3 The resurrection is our hope of eternal life 4 The resurrection shows us that there is no impossibility with God as he is the one that calls non existent things into existence and quickens or gives life to everything that may be dead even in our lives 5 The power of his resurrection is the greatest power in the universe This power is backing us therefore we have nothing to fear in any way 6 The resurrection has placed Christ far above principalities and powers In him we too have been placed far above principalities and powers The implication is that we can no longer afford to cower under them in fear When you are positionally above someone they take orders from you not the other way round You must continue to enforce your superior position over them and not allow them mess around your life 7 The death and resurrection of Jesus Christ resulted in his exaltation he has the highest name in heaven earth and beneath the earth And Jesus came and spake unto them saying All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth Go ye therefore and teach all nations baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost

Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you and lo I am with you always even unto the end of the world Amen Matthew 28:18-20 Jesus the one who has the greatest name and the one to whom all power and authority in heaven, earth, and beneath the earth belong to, has sent us all on an assignment. He did not leave us alone; he says he is with us till the end of the world. What a benefit to know that you have the authority of the universe behind you. There is no limitation of any sort. By his death and resurrection, all authority given to us has been consolidated. You can make pronouncements and declarations in his name and see them come to pass. Hallelujah! He that committeth sin is of the devil, for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose, the Son of God was manifested that he might destroy the works of the devil. 1 John 3:8 He came to destroy the works of the devil and the devil himself. Every activity of Satan stands destroyed in your life. You are now in charge; there is nothing to fear. Don't miss this book; buy your copy now.

Dissertations on the Character, Death & Resurrection of Jesus Christ, and the Evidence of His Gospel Jeremy Belknap, 1795
Resurrection Hope and the Death of Death Mitchell L. Chase, 2022-09-26 A Biblical Theology of Resurrection Hope from Genesis to Revelation. Death is a powerful and sobering reality. While everyone must face death, it is not the end for those united with Christ. Followers of Jesus Christ have resurrection hope, the proclamation that Christ has defeated death and the promise that believers shall share in his victory. The resurrection is essential to the Christian faith and is rooted in the faithfulness of God. With scholarly insight, Mitchell L. Chase traces the theme of resurrection hope throughout Scripture, walking through each section of Scripture from the Law to Revelation. Having a proper understanding of death and resurrection will not only stir up our soberness for the reality of sin and death but it will also motivate our praise to God. Founded on Scripture highlights the interconnectedness of the Bible. For learners, ideal for students or anyone looking to grow in their knowledge of God and the Scriptures. Part of the Short Studies in Biblical Theology Series. Other volumes include The New Creation and the Storyline of Scripture, The Lord's Supper as the Sign and Meal of the New Covenant, and The Kingdom of God and the Glory of the Cross.

Jesus and the Demise of Death Matthew Levering, 2012 What happens after death to Jesus and to those who follow him? Jesus and the Demise of Death offers a constructive theology that seeks to answer that very question carefully, considering both Jesus' descent into hell and eventual resurrection as integral parts of a robust vision of the Christian bodily resurrection. Taking on the claims of N. T. Wright and Richard B. Hays, Matthew Levering draws strongly upon the work of Thomas Aquinas to propose a radical reconstruction of Christian eschatological theology, one that takes seriously the profound ways in which Christianity and its beatific vision have been enriched by Platonic thought and emphasizes the role of the Church community in the passage from life to death. In so doing, Levering underscores the hope in eternal life for Jesus' followers and gives readers firm and fruitful soil upon which to base conversations about the Christian's future.
Blood and Water John Paul Heil, 1995
Death and the Afterlife in the New Testament Jaime Clark-Soles, 2006-11-15 Clark Soles began this project in order to answer the question: What exactly does the New Testament say about death and afterlife? It turns out that it says both more and less than one might hope or expect. By more she means that every time the subject of death and what happens after death arises it is clear that the authors' interests far exceed answering that single question. Their comments emerge from the concerns and experiences of living Christian communities; they relate to a larger theological and pastoral agenda and their primary focus remains life on earth and the proper living of it. The texts say less than one may hope because no author sets out to answer my question directly. There is no systematic theology in the New Testament regarding death and afterlife. Certainly resurrection appears throughout though differently emphasized and interpreted. Beyond that the fascinating aspects of the question are in the details of the texts. Therefore the appropriate question as it turns out is not: What does the New Testament say about death and afterlife but what do various New Testament texts say about it? Others have sought to unify the New Testament witness glossing over the individual pictures presented by the New Testament authors. Clark Soles revels in the snapshots of the individuals and am less interested in the family photo. Clark Soles inquires into the specific language that each author uses regarding death and afterlife. She explores anthropology, cosmology, eschatology and where relevant theology and Christology. Finally Clark Soles suggests ways that the stated views function in each situation.

Death and Events Ian R Lamond, Ruth Dowson, 2021-11-11. This unique volume examines death from a socio-cultural events perspective. Drawing on the empirical and conceptual work produced by an international body of researchers it is the first publication to look at death, dying, memorialization and their mediation from an events orientation. By placing the contribution of these scholars together this book provides a unique opportunity to instigate an international critical discussion around the connectivities associated with death and events. Chapters consider connections to death and events on many levels including individual, local, communally based constructions of the event landscape, the relationship between death and events into larger socio-cultural frames of reference. Chapters also consider how death and events are manifest through diverse platforms of mediation with a discussion of the media presentation of end of life events and the articulation of death online. Case studies from a wide ranging selection of countries from Moscow to Bangladesh to Cambodia are examined throughout. This will be of great interest to upper level students and researchers in event studies as well as a variety of other disciplines such as sociology and cultural studies. Body, Soul, and Human Life (Studies in Theological Interpretation) Joel B. Green, 2008-07-01. Are humans composed of a material body and an immaterial soul? This view is commonly held by Christians yet it has been undermined by recent developments in neuroscience. Exploring what Scripture and theology teach about issues such as being in the divine image, the importance of community, sin, free will, salvation and the afterlife, Joel Green argues that a dualistic view of the human person is inconsistent with both science and Scripture. This wide ranging discussion is sure to provoke much thought and debate. Bestselling books have explored the relationship between body, mind and soul. Now Joel Green provides us with a biblical perspective on these issues. The Life, Passion, Death and Resurrection of Jesus Christ Anne Catherine Emmerich, 2016-04-29. The death and resurrection of Jesus John P. Heil, 1991.
