The Death of Tragedy George Steiner,1963 The Death of Tragedy George Steiner,1961 In the Light of Christ Lucy Beckett,2006-01-01 The good the true and the beautiful it is for these that our souls long Though they reside in unity and perfection in God alone the written word is one place we can discover glimmers of divine light The writings of great souls can turn our gaze toward God as he is revealed in Jesus Christ Even authors who do not know Christ or who reject Christ can still point to him for anyone who seeks the truth finds it and any one who turns his back on the truth turns away from a someone whose presence can often be more keenly felt in his absence In this volume Lucy Beckett illuminates some of the finest writings in the Western tradition and trains our eye to discover in them the Christian vision of God She masterfully guides us through Sophocles Plato Augustine Dante Shakespeare Dostoyevsky and many others deftly demonstrating each author s worth as a bearer of truth Death, Sacrifice, and Tragedy Martin Foss,1986 Early German Romanticism Walter Silz,1929 No detailed description available for Early German Romanticism The Literature of Melancholia M. Middeke,Christina Wald,2011-11-18 This collection analyzes philosophical psycho analytic and aesthetic contexts of the discourse of melancholia in British and postcolonial literature and culture and seeks to trace the multi faceted phenomenon of melancholia from the early modern period to the present Texts discussed range from Shakespeare and Milton to Coetzee and Barker The Philosophy of Parochialism Radomir Konstantinovic,2021-10-07 Available for the first time in English an essay with important insights on the sources of totalitarianism intolerance and racism The Kuyper Center Review, Vol 3 Gordon Graham,2013-05-03 Some religious traditions such as Lutheran Wesleyan and Eastern Orthodox have aesthetically rich resources on which to draw for the renewal of arts in everyday life In contrast Calvinism has generally been suspicious of the arts The essays in this volume attempt to explore new avenues of thought about Calvinism s relation to the arts Part historical part theological and part practical they offer a wide ranging exploration of neo Calvinism s relationship to the arts both at a general level and in connection with specific art forms Overall they suggest that the neo Calvinism espoused by Abraham Kuyper can and should make more of the arts than the traditional view of Reformed Christianity might be thought to allow Contributors Clifford B Anderson John Barber James D Bratt Michael Br utigam Janet Danielson Neal DeRoo John De Soto James Eglinton Matthew Kaemingk Jennifer Wang William Baltmanis Whitney Albert M Wolters

The Bookman ,1904 Modernity between Wagner and Nietzsche Brayton Polka,2015-01-06 Modernity between Wagner and Nietzsche analyzes the operas and writings of Wagner in order to prove that the ideas on which they are based contradict and falsify the values that are fundamental to modernity This book also analyzes the ideas that are central to the philosophy of Nietzsche demonstrating that the values on the basis of which he breaks with Wagner and repudiates their common mentor Schopenhauer are those fundamental to modernity Brayton Polka makes use of the critical distinction that Kierkegaard draws between Christianity and Christendom Christianity represents what Nietzsche calls the faith that is presupposed in unconditionally willing the truth in saying yes to life Christendom in contrast represents the bad faith of nihilism in saying no to life Polka then shows that Wagner in following Schopenhauer represents Christendom with the demonstration in his operas that life is nothing but death and death is nothing but life In other words the purpose of the will for Wagner is to annihilate the will since it is only in and through death that human beings are liberated from life as willfully sinful Nietzsche in contrast is consistent with the biblical concept that existence is created from nothing from nothing that is not made in the image of God that any claim that the will can will not to will is contradictory and hence false For not to will is in truth still to will nothing There is then Nietzsche shows no escape from the will Either human beings will the truth in saying yes to life as created from nothing or in truly willing nothing they say no to life in worshipping the God of Christendom who is dead
