Death In Bloodhound Red:

Death in Bloodhound Red Virginia Lanier,1995 The heroine is bloodhound trainer Joe Beth Sidden who normally helps police find missing persons and suspects On this occasion the suspect is herself she is accused of attempted murder after her husband a recently released convict was nearly beaten to death Joe Beth must use her talents to clear her name The setting is the Okefenokee Swamp in Georgia

Mystery Women, Volume Three (Revised) Colleen Barnett,2010-12-31 Like other fictional characters female sleuths may live in the past or the future They may represent current times with some level of reality or shape their settings to suit an agenda There are audiences for both realism and escapism in the mystery novel It is interesting however to compare the fictional world of the mystery sleuth with the world in which readers live Of course mystery readers do not share one simplistic world They live in urban suburban and rural areas as do the female heroines in the books they read They may choose a book because it has a familiar background or because it takes them to places they long to visit Readers may be rich or poor young or old conservative or liberal So are the heroines What incredible choices there are today in mystery series This three volume encyclopedia of women characters in the mystery novel is like a gigantic menu Like a menu the descriptions of the items that are provided are subjective Volume 3 of Mystery Women as currently updated adds an additional 42 sleuths to the 500 plus who were covered in the initial Volume 3 These are more recently discovered sleuths who were introduced during the period from January 1 1990 to December 31 1999 This more than doubles the number of sleuths introduced in the 1980s 298 of whom were covered in Volume 2 and easily exceeded the 347 series and some outstanding individuals described in Volume 1 which covered a 130 year period from 1860 1979 It also includes updates on those individuals covered in the first edition changes in status short reviews of books published since the first edition through December 31 2008

Great Women Mystery Writers Elizabeth A. Blakesley,2006-11-30 Mysteries are among the most popular books today and women continue to be among the most creative and widely read mystery writers This book includes alphabetically arranged entries on 90 women mystery writers Many of the writers discussed were not even writing when the first edition of this book was published in 1994 while others have written numerous works since then Writers were selected based on their status as award winners their commercial success and their critical acclaim Each entry provides biographical information a discussion of major works and themes and primary and secondary bibliographies The volume closes with appendices and a selected general bibliography Public library patrons will value this guide to their favorite authors while students will turn to it when writing reports
