Death On Widows Walk:

A Widow's Walk Marian Fontana, 2006-09-11 Fontana president of the 9 11 Widows and Victims Family Association pens a moving lyrical and profoundly funny memoir of a year in the life of a firefighter wife widowed in the 9 11 attacks The Elder Widow's Walk Lucille Ann Meltz, 2018-02-01 A Widow's Walk Lynee A. Davis, 2011-04-05 Lynee A Davis has carved a new life and identity out of the ashes of her husbands untimely death She is a Personal Trainer and Fitness Instructor on a mission to educate others on the importance of physical fitness Currently she is pursuing a California Teaching Credential in Physical Education to teach in the public school system Lynee is shockingly honest as she chronicles her experience s as a widow living on the edge of reality As she questions the meaning of life and her faith in God she discovers that its faith that gives her purpose and the strength to continue on the journey Fasten your seat belts and ride an emotional roller coaster where nothing is off limits Hear the thoughts feel the pain and rejoice over the victories of A Widows Walk The Widow's Walk Charles Rabou, 1855 Widow's Walk Anne Hosansky, 1993 One woman describes the loss from cancer of her husband of thirty nine years interweaving scenes from her marriage with accounts of her adjustment to widowhood in which she describes how she coped 25 000 first printing 15 000 ad promo Widow's Walk Pamela Cuming, 2016-12-04 Pamela Cuming is thirty four years old when her husband dies of a heart attack With Bill s death she loses not only a husband and best friend but her business partner as well She must rebuild her life raise two children and run the consulting firm she and Bill once co managed But first she must face the fact that she is a widow To her credit Pamela Cuming is a take charge kind of woman However in reality she rides an emotional roller coaster one moment soaring with pleasure over her own independence and insight the next moment plunging into terror over her loss and feelings of inadequacy Pamela Cuming traces her first year s journey through the fears and frustrations of widowhood her own angry despair her children s grief and the necessity of coping with all the chores her husband once handled getting the car fixed painting the house taking over the administrative end of their business She speaks about an anxiety she cannot always control the fear of sleeping in their bed the depression of holidays and anniversaries and the overwhelming sense of being alone Yet somehow she does begin to set things right and to redefine her personal boundaries At the end of the first year without her husband Pamela Cuming is a significantly different person Her values and priorities have been aired and reorganized and her individuality has been acknowledged and remains intact Widow s Walk is a bold brave and candid admission of bereavement weakness and ultimately strength It tells a story that is as relevant to widows and widowers today as it was in 1979 when she experienced her loss In some respects that was a very different time There were smoking sections in airplanes often separated from the non smoking sections by only an aisle It was customary to order cocktails at lunch There were no cellphones Personal computers were still on the drawing board She wrote Widow s Walk on a Smith Corona typewriter It was a different time and yet the emotions she felt back then when her husband s heart stopped beating were the same as any widow or widower feels today Then and now widowhood feels like walking through the land of the shadows The world is blurry Normal conversation about mundane subjects is strained and tedious Time moves slowly The days are endless and the nights are even longer You struggle to reach through the shadows and grasp something real but there is nothing there Emerging from the land of the shadows is the awful challenge that all widows and widowers face Widow's Walk sheds light on how to navigate that dark path The first edition of Widow's Walk was published in 1981 The second edition includes a preface and an epilogue and has been edited to make the book more readable

Widow's Walk Bill Tucker,2009-12 Widow's Walk Kenneth Spillias,2013 When Jim Donovan is sixteen years old two events occur that shape the rest of his life His father has a fatal heart attack and Jim suffers the humiliation from a prank played on him by a group of seventeen year old girls From then on sex violence and the supernatural play major roles in his fateful journey A pattern of tragedy and humiliation follows him into adulthood where evil takes human animal and otherworldly forms stalking him at every turn and objectifying Jim throughout his life His therapist Dr Pe re becomes the personification of evil clothed in the soothing role of healer and teacher Meanwhile Renee his beautiful wife steers Jim back to his better instincts and a new life and yet he faces the age old temptations of money power and sex urged on by Dr Pe re Jim rises to great heights as a mega church evangelist in South Florida and later falls in a hushed up scandal that propels him and his wife to Africa where they ultimately fall victim to mystical and ritualistic depravity Widow's Walk follows Jim as he battles an intensifying struggle between good and evil that dominates his entire life a life that is alternately strange terrifying and wonderful where he must confront real contradictions of elation and depression love and hatred and trust and betrayal
