The Reformation

The Reformation was a major religious movement in the 16th century that led to the creation of Protestant churches. It began in 1517 when Martin Luther posted his 95 Theses on the door of the Castle Church in Wittenberg, Germany. Luther's ideas challenged the authority of the Pope and the Catholic Church's practices, such as the sale of indulgences. Other reformers like John Calvin and Ulrich Zwingli also played significant roles in the movement. The Reformation led to the establishment of new churches and the eventual split of Western Christianity into Catholic and Protestant branches.

- Martin Luther's 95 Theses
- John Calvin's Geneva
- Ulrich Zwingli's Zurich
- The English Reformation
- The Protestant Reformation
- The Catholic Reformation

The Reformation had a profound impact on European society, leading to the rise of individualism and the questioning of traditional authority. It also led to the development of new religious practices and the eventual formation of modern nations. The Reformation's influence is still felt today in many aspects of Western culture and religion.
