Alan Paton Edward Callan,1982 Cry, the Beloved Country Alan Paton,2003-11-25 An Oprah Book Club selection Cry the Beloved Country the most famous and important novel in South Africa s history was an immediate worldwide bestseller in 1948 Alan Paton s impassioned novel about a black man s country under white man s law is a work of searing beauty Cry the beloved country for the unborn child that is the inheritor of our fear Let him not love the earth too deeply Let him not laugh too gladly when the water runs through his fingers nor stand too silent when the setting sun makes red the veld with fire Let him not be too moved when the birds of his land are singing nor give too much of his heart to a mountain or valley For fear will rob him of all if he gives too much The eminent literary critic Lewis Gannett wrote We have had many novels from statesmen and reformers almost all bad many novels from poets almost all thin In Alan Paton s Cry the Beloved Country the statesman the poet and the novelist meet in a unique harmony Cry the Beloved Country is the deeply moving story of the Zulu pastor Stephen Kumalo and his son Absalom set against the background of a land and a people riven by racial injustice Remarkable for its lyricism unforgettable for character and incident Cry the Beloved Country is a classic work of love and hope courage and endurance born of the dignity of man Tales From a Troubled Land Alan Paton,1961 Ten stories dealing with social injustice in South Africa Alan Paton's Cry, the Beloved Country Harold Bloom,2010 Presents a collection of interpretations of Alan Paton s novel Cry the beloved country Alan Paton: His Compassion Marion G. Johnson,Alan Paton,1970

Alan Paton Speaking Roy Holland,2008-08 This interview with Alan Paton by Roy Holland has never until now been published The interview took place on June 19 and June 20 1973 when Holland was a guest in Paton s home Lintrose at Bothas Hill Kloof Natal It provides many insights into Paton s life his political involvement as the founder of the Liberal party in South Africa and his writings Songs of Africa Alan Paton,1995 The Undergraduate's Companion to African Writers and Their Web Sites Miriam E. Conteh-Morgan,2005-10-30 Now a firmly established part of world literature course offerings in many general education curricula African literature is no longer housed exclusively with African Studies programs and is often studied in English French Portuguese Women s Studies and Comparative Studies departments This book helps fill the great need for research materials on this topic presenting the best resources available for 300 African writers These writers have been carefully selected to include both well known writers and those less commonly studied yet highly influential. They are drawn from both the Sub Sahara and the Maghreb, the major geographical regions of Africa. The study of Africa was introduced into the curriculum of institutions of higher learning in the United States in the 1960s when the Black Consciousness movement in the United States and the Cold War and decolonization movements in Africa created a need for the systematic study of other regions of the world. Between 1986 and 1991 three Africans won Nobel literature prizes: Soyinka, Mahfouz, and Gordimer, and the visibility of African writers increased. They are now a firmly established part of world literature courses in many general education curricula throughout North America. African Writers is meant to serve as a resource for introductory material on 300 writers from 39 countries. These writers were selected on the basis of two criteria: that there is material on them in an easily available reference work and that there is some information of research value on free Web sites. Each writer is from the late 19th or 20th century, with the notable exception of Olaudah Equiano, an 18th-century African whose slave narrative is generally considered the first work of African literature. All entries are annotated.

Alan Paton Alan Paton, 1978 Livingstone's 'lives' Justin Livingstone, 2014-11-01 David Livingstone, the missionary explorer, has attracted more commentary than nearly any other Victorian hero. Beginning in the years following his death, he soon became the subject of a major biographical tradition. Yet out of this extensive discourse, no unified image of Livingstone emerges. Rather, he has been represented in diverse ways and in a variety of socio-political contexts. Until now, no one has explored Livingstone's posthumous reputation in full. This book meets the challenge. In approaching Livingstone's complex legacy, it adopts a metabiographical perspective. In other words, this book is a biography of biographies. Rather than trying to uncover the true nature of the subject, metabiography is concerned with the malleability of biographical representation. It does not aim to uncover Livingstone's real identity but instead asks what has he been made to mean.

Crossing disciplinary boundaries, Livingstone's lives will interest scholars of imperial history, postcolonialism, life writing, travel writing, and Victorian studies.

Gandhi's African Legacy: Phoenix Settlement 1904 to 2024. A History Through Letters Uma Dhupelia-Mesthrie, 2024-10-01 This is an epic work which gives us another deep insight, not just into the South African Gandhi but also into his colleagues at the settlement and an ongoing biography of the settlement itself. This is the first book telling the history of Phoenix Settlement from its founding to now. It provides us with a view into the lives of the residents and supporters, rather than merely a history of the buildings. This is a goldmine for researchers. It very skilfully presents the role of the settlement in the campaigns against apartheid in the early 1950s and the international recognition of its actions and the stimulus they provided for international campaigns. The story of the settlement as a haven for multi-racial gatherings in the time of apartheid and, regardless of this, the disaster that followed, is wonderfully told. Thomas Weber, Emeritus Professor, La Trobe University, Melbourne. Another magisterial book from Dhupelia Mesthrie, this time on Phoenix, told through deeply researched contextual chapters and the letters of those who lived there. Informed by a lifetime's work on Gandhi and drawing on archives and personal papers from across the world, this monumental work will be treasured by grateful scholars and readers for decades to come Isabel Hofmeyr Emeritus Professor University of the Witwatersrand The book provides a major new in depth understanding of a major initiative in Gandhi s life an initiative which laid the ground for his work in South Africa and in India and whose resonances are still being felt in the world Ramachandra Guha Eminent biographer of Gandhi Max Perkins, Editor of Genius Andrew Scott Berg,1978 Traces the life of the influential book editor who worked with Ernest Hemingway Thomas Wolfe and F Scott Fitzgerald Hope for South Africa Alan Paton,1959

Alan Paton (9781429812238). ,2005 Cry, the Beloved Country Alan Paton,1987 The greatest novel to emerge out of the tragedy of South Africa and one of the best novels of our time The New Republic A beautiful novel its writing is so fresh its projection of character so immediate and full its events so compelling and its understanding so compassionate that to read the book is to share intimately even to the point of catharsis in the grave human experience The New York Times An Oprah Book Club selection Cry the Beloved Country was an immediate worldwide bestseller when it was published in 1948 Alan Paton s impassioned novel about a black man s country under white man s law is a work of searing beauty Cry the Beloved Country is the deeply moving story of the Zulu pastor Stephen Kumalo and his son Absalom set against the background of a land and a people riven by racial injustice Remarkable for its lyricism unforgettable for character and incident Cry the Beloved Country is a classic work of love and hope courage and endurance born of the dignity of man

Patrick Duncan C. J. Driver,2000 With a Foreword by Anthony Sampson Born son of a Governor General of South Africa Patrick Duncan rejected the attitudes of his privileged background to follow the Gandhian way of passive reistance even to jail This biography traces the life and times of Duncan and the changes and struggles in late twentieth century South Africa
