Alcoholism in North America, Europe, and Asia John E. Helzer, Glorisa J. Canino, 1992 This volume represents a landmark in the important and rapidly expanding literature of cross cultural epidemiology that has been made possible by the worldwide popularity of the DSM III and the multi national use of a single survey instrument the Diagnostic Interview Schedule DIS Reviewing population survey findings across ten regions of North America Europe and Asia this study is the first direct cross national comparison of personal interview data on alcoholism including prevalence rates and risk factors The book carefully describes the background of the various surveys and the methods of analysis and comparison Chapters on each region describe the prevalence of drinking problems the symptomatic expression of alcoholism in that culture aspects of the cultural background that are relevant to drinking behavior and the association between alcoholism and other psychiatric disorders Of particular importance in this volume is the inclusion of a chapter on alcoholism in the Socialist Republic of China from which very little scientific information has been readily available The inclusion of eastern and western cultural perspectives offers insight into both universal and culturally distinct aspects of alcoholism The volume is essential reading for psychiatrists epidemiologists sociologists and alcohol theorists researchers and clinicians Alcohol and its Role in the Evolution of Human Society Ian S Hornsey, 2016-01-13 Archaeologists and anthropologists especially ethnologists have for many years realised that man s ingestion of alcoholic beverages may well have played a significant part in his transition from hunter gatherer to agriculturalist This unique book provides a scientific text on the subject of ethanol that also aims to include material designed to show non scientists what fermentation is all about Conversely scientists may well be surprised to find the extent to which ethanol has played a part in evolution and civilisation of our species Alcohol Health and Research World ,1993 Standard Encyclopedia of the Alcohol Problem Ernest Hurst Cherrington, 1926 International Student of the World Problem of Alcoholism (varies) ,1914 Public Health Reports ,2002 Alcohol Health and Research World ,1992

Introduction to Alcohol Research Daniel L. Yalisove, 2004 There has been recent attention given to overcome the gulf between the treatment of alcoholism and research on alcoholism This book is a practical step to bridge the gap There is a great body of useful research on alcohol and alcoholism which has been conducted in the past 25 years This book includes this research for important contributions to the understanding of alcoholism and treatment This book gives the reader an introduction to research methods and other knowledge bases while discussing current alcohol research and suggests clinical applications Each subsequent chapter focuses on a specific variable and its methodology
