Bike Wars:

Bike wars ,2016 To use the bike itself is war A war against the coarseness of this world against insensitivity against going at 300km per hour seeing nothing A war that is slow almost a walk but feels at full speed with blood running fast A war done in the old way as a knight riding a steel horse closer to an already digested apocalyptic Mad Max future than to a tyrannical and devastating normality Those who participate in this ritual are freedom fighters They are not an army not even a guerrilla army that is why they use discarded and recovered items They carry in their genes the heritage of creating other worlds from the ashes scrap and debris They have seen so much broken junk so many abandoned surplus and obsolescence that they are experts in modern complex engineering although his main weapon is loaded with simplicity with dirty hands without fear of falling In this book you see battles warriors stains radial chips black smoke and clanking Quite a rumor that hides in the nooks and crannies of this world that is always waiting for a gesture of weakness gemapolancoasensi com
