Chris Blatchford

Biker Babes:

Beauty from Ashes David Roller, 2024-01-04 Beauty from Ashes is fiction and is a compilation of stories written for the author's wife as she battled leukemia. This compilation is a continuation of the author's book Harbingers of Spring in that it presents the growth of a festival over several decades in the Sweetwater Valley of Brown County, Indiana. This area is a location where the author spent his childhood years where his grandfather's farm was located. There is no festival located there only beauty and the site still has the location of the author's grandmother's house where it sat before it burned to the ground. Rebuilding it would be senseless as it originally sat too close to the road. An attempt was made herein to present a story of equality and diversity and describe what that might look like if all concerned strove for the same goal. Ugly is a presentation of racism concerning the mother of the author's childhood girlfriend. The mother presents total unbiased interactions except toward one neighbor child. Isaiah 61 is used to outline the ups and downs of progress toward a multifaceted goal. In every situation and every confrontation the author attempts to show an actuality of beauty developing from conflict and cruelty. It presents the human predicament through the inclusion of the most radical and diverse characters the author can imagine all working together to achieve happiness. The forbidden love between a mixed child and a White child is a continuous thread throughout the book with an almost conclusion when in old age and helplessness he is murdered and dies being cared for by his lover. The conclusion is from Genesis 1:2, Job 33:4, and Numbers 27:16 regarding the Hebrew word Ruach wherein God's name is referred to as the sound of a breath wherein we whisper God's name in every breath of our life and close our life with one final recognition of our living God. Love triumphs. This is the author's third book. He also wrote Butterfly Wars and Harbingers of Spring.

Kick Start Carol Setters, 2005-04-27 In Kick Start Carol Setters inspires women from all walks of life to thumb their noses at whatever social conformity may be holding them back. Don't imagine or actual leather jackets and join a radical sisterhood of real and virtual biker babes. But riding a Harley or a Honda isn't the point. It's the metaphor for attitude. Not buying into someone else's idea of who you should be either CEO or soccer mom and taking the time and making the effort to figure out who your own best self is and becoming that person. Setters writes, "We are coming to the realization that the exquisite strength inherent in our gender must be expressed more openly if we are going to participate in saving this planet from its current state of chaos. And that's the real, real point. The new self-fulfillment isn't about narcissism. It's about nothing less than the survival of our planet." The key Setters writes is to figure out what really matters to us, what excites us, what bone-deep do-or-die must-experience and share values and passions are just itching to be born and played out in our lives. Use this unique book to find out what it is you are really supposed to be doing here on the Biker Planet Earth for the benefit of those around you.
