American Migrant Fictions Sonia Weiner, 2018-07-17 In American Migrant Fictions Space Narrative Identity Sonia Weiner focuses on novels of five American migrant writers of the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries who construct spatial paradigms within their narratives to explore questions of linguistic diversity identities and longings By weaving visual techniques within their narratives photography comics cartography authors Aleksandar Hemon G B Tran Junot Diaz Boris Fishman and Vikram Chandra convey a surplus of perspectives and gesture towards alternative spaces spatial in betweenness and transnational space

Wanderwords Maria Lauret, 2014-09-25 How do immigrant migrant writers negotiate their representation of a multilingual world for a monolingual audience Does their English betray the presence of another language is that other language erased or does it appear here and there on special occasions for special reasons Do words and meanings wander from one language and one self to another Do the psychic and cultural worlds of different languages split apart or merge What is the aesthetic effect of such wandering splitting or merging Usually described as code switches by linguists fragments of other languages have wandered into American literature in English from the beginning Wanderwords asks what in the memoirs poems essays and fiction of a variety of twentieth and twenty first century writers the function and meaning of such language migration might be It shows what there is to be gained if we learn to read migrant writing with an eye and an ear for linguistic difference and it concludes that freighted with the other cultural meanings wrapped up in their different looks and sounds wanderwords can perform wonders of poetic signification as well as cultural critique Bringing together literary and cultural theory with linguistics as well as the theory and history of migration and with psychoanalysis for its understanding of the multilingual unconscious Wanderwords engages closely with the work of well known and unheard of writers such as Mary Antin and Eva Hoffman Richard Rodriguez and Junot Diaz Theresa Hak Kyung Cha and Bharati Mukherjee Edward Bok and Truus van Bruinessen Susana Chavez Silverman and Gustavo Perez Firmat Pietro DiDonato and Don DeLillo In so doing a poetics of multilingualism unfolds that stretches well beyond translation into the lingual contact zone of English with other languages that is American literature belatedly re connecting with the world and teaching sign linguistics to deaf and hearing people It assumes no previous knowledge of linguistics or sign language and is not structured around traditional headings such as phonology morphology and syntax Instead it is set out in such a way as to help learners and their teachers understand the linguistic principles behind the language There are sections on BSL grammar and also on the use of BSL including social acceptability in signing variation and poetry and humour in BSL Technical terms and linguistic jargon are kept to a minimum and the text contains many examples from English BSL and other spoken and sign languages The book is amply illustrated and contains exercises as well as a reading list for further study An accompanying 90 minute DVD is available from Talk With Sign Books To find out more visit <http://www.talkwithsign.com/linguistics/british-sign-language/p/741.html>
