Baba and the Crew Bill Davis, Jr, 2020-07-16 Baba and the Crew is a candid story of Bill Davis challenges and triumphs as a single dad raising four children ages 3 5 7 and 9 Despite the naysayers who believed children belong with their mother Bill demonstrates that love compassion and structure will produce well rounded socially conscious responsible adults Readers meet each member of the Crew and hear in their own words what it was like growing up in the strict family first Davis household With help from the village Sekou Toussaint Imani and Naeemah are accomplished socially conscious adults and continue to make Baba proud What makes Baba and the Crew special is that it dispels the myth of the absent Black father It goes against the erroneous stereotypical notion that single parent families headed by Black fathers can hold a family together It shows the Black father has love cares for and has hopes and dreams for his family as much as any other culture Bruce S Morgan 1st VP New Jersey State Conference NAACP In our cultural climate of African American inequality mass incarceration and racism Baba and The Crew is a great example to eradicate the myth of absentee or deadbeat African American fathers Bill Davis has taken on his role as Baba the Swahili term for father with love courage and determination to raise and equip his children with the knowledge compassion and tools to thrive in society Bill s story is one that needs to be highlighted more often in mass media Dr Randal Pinkett Chairman and CEO BCT Partners and Co author Black Faces in White Places In this revealing memoir Baba Bill shares not only his parenthood journey but he also demonstrates the extent to which childhood experiences and the way we are parented shape the way we decide to parent Without rancor recrimination or braggadocio Bill assesses with great objectivity and clarity the generational parenting behaviors in his family he chose to emulate while rearing his own children Bill did not elect single fatherhood but when life dealt him those cards he took up the Baba challenge with a loving willing determination to do everything in his power to make sure he had a winning hand While this memoir looks back at family history and moves forward toward the family s future it is grounded solidly in the present lives of Baba and his Crew This is not a parenting primer or how to guide from an expert but rather an unflinchingly honest self effacing and sometimes humorous behind the scenes look at how this single father raised four children to be culturally centered kind aspirational compassionate critical thinking self reliant adults Virginia DeBerry NY Times Best selling Author I strongly endorse Prof Bill Davis book He was my former undergraduate student at Rutgers College and I had the great pleasure of calling him Bill Black Davis He was a very good student and became an outstanding father and single parent to high achieving children I remember seeing him with his children on the television show Reading Rainbow as he represented a strong role model as a Black father and single parent Dr Leonard L Bethel Professor Emeritus Rutgers University NJ What always impressed me about Bill was his ability to advocate for others and maintain his love and guidance for his five children That balance is a role model for all single fathers Ronald E Bolandi Former Piscataway Twp Superintendent of Schools Bill Davis story stands in stark contrast to the dominant narrative around black fathers This book is an inspiration for all parents and the advice that Brother Bill provides will help you raise your children to become strong adults LeDerick Horne Poet Disability Activist The Complete Encyclopedia of Popular Music and Jazz, 1900-1950: Biographies, A through K Roger D.
