

Alejo Carpentier

Alejo Carpentier, Ana Cairo Ballester

Alejo Carpentier:

Alejo Carpentier Roberto González Echevarría, 2014-11-06 Alejo Carpentier was one of the greatest Latin American novelists of the twentieth century as well as a musicologist, journalist, cultural promoter and diplomat. His fictional world issues from an encyclopedic knowledge of the history, art, music and literature of Latin America and Europe. Carpentier's novels and stories are the enabling discourse of today's Latin American narrative and his interpretation of Latin American history has been among the most influential. Carpentier was the first to provide a comprehensive view of Caribbean history that centered on the contribution of Africans, above and beyond the differences created by European cultures and languages.

Alejo Carpentier: The Pilgrim at Home first published in 1977 and updated for this edition covers the life and works of the great Cuban novelist, offering a new perspective on the relationship between the two. González Echevarría offers detailed readings of the works La música en Cuba, The Kingdom of This World, The Lost Steps and Explosion in a Cathedral. In a new concluding chapter, he takes up Carpentier's last years, his relationship with the Cuban revolutionary regime and his last two novels, El arpa y la sombra and La consagración de la primavera, in which Carpentier reviewed his life and career. Alejo Carpentier, a Comprehensive Study Bobs M. Tusa, 1982 Alejo Carpentier and His Early Works Frank Janney, 1981 Published by Boydell Brewer Inc Reasons of State Alejo Carpentier, 2013-10-08

One of the most significant novels in Latin American literature written by Cuba's most important modern novelist to win a bet with Gabriel García Márquez. In the early 1970s, friends Gabriel García Márquez, Augusto Roa Bastos, and Alejo Carpentier reached a joint decision: they would each write a novel about the dictatorships then wreaking misery in Latin America. García Márquez went on to write The Autumn of the Patriarch and Roa Bastos The Supreme. The third novel in this remarkable trinity is Reasons of State, hailed as the most significant novel ever to come out of Cuba. As with García Márquez, Reasons of State is a bold story, boldly told, daring in its perceptions, rich in lush detail, inventive in prose, and deadly compelling in its suspenseful plot. Inexplicably out of print for years, it tells the tale of the dictator of an unnamed Latin American country who has been living the life of luxury in high society Paris. When news reaches him of a coup at home, he rushes back and crushes it with brutal military force. But returning to Paris, he is given a chilly welcome and learns that photographs of the atrocities have been circulating among his well-to-do friends. Meanwhile, World War One has broken out, and another rebellion forces the dictator back across the ocean. As he struggles with the Marxist forces beginning to find footing in his own country and Europe is devastated, Carpentier constructs a masterful and biting satire of the new world order. El camino de Santiago Alejo Carpentier, Ana Cairo Ballester, 2002 Alejo Carpentier and the Musical Text Katia Chornik, 2017-07-05

Widely known for his novels El reino de este mundo, The Kingdom of this World, and Los pasos perdidos, The Lost Steps, the Swiss-born Cuban writer Alejo Carpentier (1904-1980) incorporated music in his fiction extensively, for instance in titles, in analogies with musical forms, in scenes depicting performances, recordings, and broadcasts, and in characters' discussions of musical issues. Chornik's study focuses on Carpentier's writings from a musicological perspective bridging intermediality and intertextuality through an examination of music as formative as form and as performed. The emphasis lies on the novels Los pasos perdidos, El acoso, The Chase, Concierto barroco, Baroque Concerto, and La consagración de la primavera, The Rite of Spring, and on his unknown essay Los orígenes de la música y la música primitiva, The Origins of Music and Primitive Music, the repository of ideas for Los pasos perdidos included here for the first time as facsimile and in English translation. Chornik's study will appeal to scholars and students in literary studies, cultural studies, musicology, and ethnomusicology, and to a specifically interdisciplinary readership.

The Harp and the Shadow Alejo Carpentier, 1990 The Repeating Island Antonio Benítez-Rojo, 1996 In this second edition of The Repeating Island, Antonio Benítez-Rojo, a master of the historical novel, short story, and critical essay, continues to confront the legacy and myths of colonialism. This co-winner of the 1993 MLA Katherine Singer Kovacs Prize has been expanded to include three entirely new chapters that add a Lacanian perspective and a view of the carnivalesque to an already brilliant interpretive study of Caribbean culture. As he did in the first edition, Benítez-Rojo redefines the Caribbean by drawing on history, economics, sociology, cultural anthropology, psychoanalysis, literary theory, and nonlinear mathematics. His point of departure is chaos theory, which holds that order and disorder are not the antithesis of each other in nature but function as mutually generative phenomena. Benítez-Rojo argues that within the apparent disorder of the Caribbean, the area's discontinuous landmasses, its different colonial histories, ethnic groups, languages, traditions, and politics, there emerges an island of paradoxes that repeats itself and gives shape to an unexpected and complex sociocultural archipelago. Benítez-Rojo illustrates this unique form of identity with powerful readings of texts by Las Casas, Guillén Carpentier, García Márquez, Walcott, Harris, Buitrago, and Rodríguez Juli. Alejo Carpentier, el peregrino en su patria Roberto González Echevarría, 1993

The Lost Steps Alejo Carpentier, 1971 Music in Cuba Alejo Carpentier, 2001 In the wake of the Buena Vista Social Club, the world has rediscovered the rich musical tradition of Cuba. A unique combination of popular and elite influences, the music of this island nation has fascinated since the golden age of the son, that new World aural collision of Africa and Europe that made Cuban music the rage in Paris, New York, and Mexico beginning in the 1920s. Drawing on such primary documents as obscure church circulars, dog-eared musical scores pulled from attics, and the records of the Spanish colonial authorities, Music in Cuba sweeps from the sixteenth to the twentieth centuries. Carpentier covers European-style elite Cuban music as well as the popular worlds of rural Spanish folk and Afro-Cuban urban music.
