Museums Inside Out Mark W. Rectanus, 2020-01-28 An ambitious study of what it means to be a museum in the twenty first century In Museums Inside Out Mark W Rectanus investigates how museums are blurring the boundaries between their gallery walls and public spaces He examines how artists are challenging and changing museums taking readers deep into new experiments in exhibition making Along the way Rectanus offers insights about how museums currently exemplify the fusion of the creative and digital economies Exploring contemporary museum practices initiatives and collaborations Rectanus analyzes projects like the Collective Museum which foster land based museum ecologies by co curating with local communities The Schirn Kunsthalle Petach Tikva Museum of Art and Tate Modern reflect museums as cultural zones for performance inside and outside the museum In addition he studies a joint project between the Van Gogh Museum and the investment firm Deloitte Luxembourg extracting insights on the transfer of expertise from museums to the financial sector Wide ranging in its case studies and boldly putting museum studies and art into conversation Museums Inside Out delivers vital insights into the ideas and places that museums are creating in contemporary culture Space Matters Lukas Feireiss, 2013-08-26 As the subject of earnest discussion the meaning of space reaches far beyond the horizon of a single discipline Lukas Feiriss has assembled a collection of international contributions for Space Matters a publication of the space design strategies study program of the University of Art and Design Linz Austria to create an inspiring expansion of the contemporary discourse on space The publication addresses cultural researchers and readers in creative professions architects artists curators scientists and students in all the related fields as well as those members of a broader audience that are interested in the incorporation of space and the practices with which it is designed in cultural social and humanities oriented contexts Present Tanja Karreman, Janine Schulze, 2007 Viewing Velocities Marcus Verhagen, 2023-06-13 How have artists responded to our market driven tech enabled culture of speed Viewing Velocities explores a contemporary art scene caught in the gears of 24/7 capitalism It looks at artists who embrace the high octane experience economy and others who are closer to the slow movement Some of the most compelling artworks addressing the cadences of contemporary work and leisure play on distinct even contradictory conceptions of time From Danh Vo's relics to Moyra Davey's photographs of dust covered belongings from Roman Ondak's queuing performers and Susan Hiller's outdoor sleepers to Maria Eichhorn's art strike and Ruth Ewan's giant reconstruction of the French revolutionary calendar artists have drawn out aspects of the present temporal order that are familiar to the point of near invisibility while outlining other more liberating ways of conceiving organising and experiencing time Marcus Verhagen builds on the work of theorists Jonathan

Crary Hartmut Rosa and Jacques Ranciere to trace lines of insurgent art that recast struggles over time and history in novel and revealing terms Critical Realism in Contemporary Art Jan Baetens, Hilde van Gelder, 2006 As scratches of reality Sekula's photographs and films leave their traces in our minds They encourage yes even force reflection and through that slow changes can probably become a reality certainly at the level of the individual Secret Publicity Sven Lütticken, 2005 Secret Publicity ISBN 90 5662 467 9 U S 32 50 Paperback 5 25 x 7 75 in 208 pgs 38 b w Item March Art Catching Some Air Liesbeth Bik, Jos Van der Pol, 2002 Bik Van der Pol - Past Imperfect Rike Frank, 2005 Om det sublima- Camilla Ericsson, 1999 Catalogue d exposition Liesbeth Bik Jos van der Pol Felix Gonzalez Torres Ann Veronica Janssens Mike Kelley Lars Nilsson Gabriel Orozco Hakan Rehnberg Cindy Sherman Hiroshi Sugimoto Wolfgang Tillmans Anders Widoff New Left Review, 2002 Life, Once More Sven Lütticken, 2005 These days the term reenactment usually refers to live reconstructions of historic events often of a military nature performed by hobbyists Civil War reenactments are the most popular in the United States while European enthusiasts most often engage in recreations from the Napoleonic era Visual art has its own versions Recent years have brought many reenactments of historic performances from the 1960s and 1970s works which otherwise would exist only in photos videos and text descriptions But what exactly is being reenacted and what is the effect of the representation What meaning is resurrected out of this doubling In the exhibition Life Once More contemporary works and texts by Mike Bidlo Bik Van der Pol Rod Dickinson Omer Fast Andrea Fraser Robert Longo Eran Schaerf Catherine Sullivan and Barbara Visser reflect on these timely and timeless questions Fly me to the moon Bik Van der Pol, 2007 Suppose the New Rijksmuseum were in the market for a site on the moon some time in the near or distant future Would it be sensible or nonsensical for the Rijksmuseum to purchase a lunar plot where it can safely house its collection Since the discovery of the moon people have laid claim to it whether symbolic or genuine The moon has resources that could potentially be extracted using technologies yet to be developed What is more it may become possible for people to live on the moon someday Pending future developments there is a lively Internet trade in deeds to pieces of the moon available at bargain prices The legality of this form of private enterprise is obviously debatable and yet Bik Van der Pol took as core item of the project one of the oldest objects in the collection of the Rijksmuseum a moon rock The crew of the first manned lunar landing mission Apollo 11 brought this rock back to earth in 1969 That same year the three astronauts Neil Armstrong Edwin Aldrin and Michael Collins visited the Netherlands Willem Drees a former Dutch prime minister received the rock on that occasion as a present from the United States ambassador And later this piece of stone was donated to the Rijksmuseum The moon rock creates links between the site of the museum the city the collection and its own origins These links are examined from various perspectives In the background are questions concerning the public and private significance of a collection as well as questions of public interest Frieze, 2001 Ideals in Concrete Cor Wagenaar, Mieke Dings, 2004 Can there still be talk of a shared culture in the Family of Europe or are the East and West estranged This question is the main theme of this beautifully designed book that provides through images and text a critical examination of Eastern and Western European cities in light of the 2004 unification In planning euphoria and the building of a completely new society based on rational and scientific principles we can glimpse a mirroring of the ideas and views of Communist politicians architects and urban planners The city is used here as a vehicle for the exploration of these key issues Parasite Paradise Liesbeth Melis,2003 Parasites are flexible and temporary structures designed by artists or architects that feed off of existing infrastructure Parasite Paradise documents 23 projects that respond on their own terms to new and unforeseen demands Many of these parasites have settled in the government designated Vinex district of Leidsche Rijn near Utrecht turning a district almost exclusively concerned with dwelling into a more urban entity What do these small mobile architectural interventions mean for our strictly regulated society and for the planning of architecture and urbanism What sense or nonsense is there in mobile architecture from a historical perspective How much of it is art and how much is architecture Parasite Paradise encourages us to consider a new approach to planning one where not everything is fixed beforehand This makes it required reading for architects urban planners and artists whose concern is designing urban space With projects by Shigeru Ban Atelier van Lieshout Vito Acconci Alicia Framis Dominique Gonzalez Foerster Martial Galfione Kathrin B hm Stefan Saffer with Andreas Lang Attila Foundation Winter H rbelt and others BitterWeber Sabine Bitter,2005

Apolonija Šušteršič Apolonija Šušteršič,Jane Rendell,2013 Not quite artist not quite architect Apolonija uteric calls herself Open 14 Jorinde Seijdel,Liesbeth Melis,2008 As the world is increasingly aware the visual arts are no longer confined by the semi public space of the museum or the privacy of the studio In recent decades we have seen a marked pressure for artists to establish relations to the world beyond these walls with all of the conflicts and transgressions that this might entail This edition of Open examines the diverse stands currently adopted by the visual arts in the public domain and assesses the impact of digitization and globalization on the public role of art As such it constitutes a sort of stock taking or evaluation of positions regarding this broad trend How does contemporary art respond to the public limelight And what role do the visual arts fulfill in civic life How does art enhance public space These and related matters are addressed in Open 14
