

HOW A BILL (REALLY) BECOMES A LAW

SIMPLE PATH
What happens most of the time

HOUSE

Suspension of the rules
The fast track to pass relatively noncontroversial bills

SENATE

Unanimous consent
The easier process that occurs when every senator agrees

But Congress can override a veto with a 2/3 majority vote.

AYE! NAY!

In both the House and the Senate, a simple majority is needed for a bill to win a vote.

If a bill passes, it goes to the other chamber for the same process.

The president can also veto it, and it doesn't become a law.

The president can ignore a bill. If it's left on the desk for ten days, it becomes a law—even without the president's signature.

The president can sign it, and it becomes a law.

If Congress adjourns before those ten days are up, it does not become a law. This is called a pocket veto.

COMMITTEE TIME

Whichever party has a majority in the House or the Senate gets the majority in every committee.

Number of committees
House → Joint → Senate

Amendments are added to bills here.

START HERE.
Follow the dotted line through the legislative labyrinth.

50% of bills die here!

COMMITTEE TIME!

VOTE

PRESIDENTIAL ACTIONS

BIG TAKEAWAY

This whole process is mostly about committees. Nobody can do anything by themselves. Unless one party has the presidency, the House, and 60 seats in the Senate, there must be compromise.

1

COME UP WITH AN IDEA

Write the bill. Anybody can write a bill: special interest groups, lobbyists, etc.

In the House, the bill gets dropped in the hopper.

The bill gets assigned to a committee.

The bill gets a number.

2

COMMITTEE TIME!

DEBATE

In the House, any bill that is to be debated goes through the Rules Committee.

In the Senate, you can talk as long as you like. This is a filibuster.

This could take a while.

If you invoke cloture you can block a filibuster.

A filibuster is any type of delay or obstruction that a Senator engages in.

3

4

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

If the language of the bill is exactly the same in the House and Senate, the bill goes to the president.

Usually, the bill goes to the Conference Committee. They decide on one final version of the bill. Then, that goes to the president.
