Hardy,1965

Billy Bird Emma Neale,2016-08-29 Moving insightful lyrical and also at times very funny this novel is a supple disarmingly frank exploration of parenthood Liam and Iris have one son Billy a bright toddler puddling about like a penguin leaving surrealist art installations all over the house a tiny cow in a teapot in a hat on the doorstep of course A stuffed crocodile in a silk camisole perched beside a woollen chick in a beanie on the bread bin why not Just as they are despairing about being able to conceive another child Jason comes into their family He arrives under fraught circumstances but might just make a perfect sibling for Billy Jason is a lovely poor sad unfortunate ordinary annoying delightful nuisance of a ratbag of a hoot of a kid and the boys grow close over the ensuing years But after a terrible accident Billy turns into a bird He utterly believes it and as his behaviour becomes increasingly worrying Liam and Iris must find a way to stop their family flying apart When extracts of Billy Bird won the NZSA Peter and Dianne Beatson Fellowship the judges said the project was inventive joyful and beautifully written Ripe with playfulness yet also unforgettably poignant this novel will unstitch and then mend your heart several times over The seagull shooter [extracts from books and letters compiled] by F.O. Morris Francis Orpen Morris,1890 The School Librarian ,2004 Build a Bonfire Paul Hodson,Stephen North,2011-11-04 How would you feel if your football club was bought by a businessman who saw your ground as real estate And what if your ground was demolished leaving you with nowhere to play next season Many fans believe that when Bill Archer a Blackburn based entrepreneur bought Brighton and Hove Albion he had no passion for the club or the game but rather saw an opportunity to make a profit If so he made the fatal mistake of misjudging football fans In July 1995 Brighton s local daily paper led its front page with the headline Seagulls Migrate announcing that the Goldstone Ground was to be sold to a property developer for 7 4 million and that home games were to be played at Portsmouth All this without one word of consultation with the fans What followed was the biggest campaign in the history of football to save a club Drawing on dozens of interviews with people directly involved the fans the FA the players and the management Build a Bonfire dramatically traces the progress of the two year fight with the board two years of despair absurdity and solidarity In so doing the book not only explores implications for other clubs in a world where the battle lines between football and money are being drawn ever tighter but also creates a picture of that strange and wonderful thing the football fan And having lived through the crisis and listened to the fans the authors can offer their Ten Essential Steps to Depose your Club Chairman should the need arise
