Hinterlands Stephen Rippon,Neil Holbrook,2021-03-23 This first volume presenting research carried out through the Exeter A Place in Time project provides a synthesis of the development of Exeter within its local regional national and international hinterlands Exeter began life in c AD 55 as one of the most important legionary bases within early Roman Britain and for two brief periods in the early and late 60s AD Exeter was a critical centre of Roman power within the new province When the legion moved to Wales the fortress was converted into the civitas capital for the Dumnonii Its development as a town was however relatively slow reflecting the gradual pace at which the region as a whole adapted to being part of the Roman world The only evidence we have for occupation within Exeter between the 5th and 8th centuries is for a church in what was later to become the Cathedral Close In the late 9th century however Exeter became a defended burh and this was followed by the revival of urban life Exeter s wealth was in part derived from its central role in the south west s tin industry and by the late

10th century Exeter was the fifth most productive mint in England Exeter s importance continued to grow as it became an episcopal and royal centre and excavations within Exeter have revealed important material culture assemblages that reflect its role as an international port
