researched lucidly written and abundantly illustrated catalogue enlightening The Boundaries of the Human in Medieval English Literature Dorothy Yamamoto, 2000 This study analyzes the fear of beastly transformation that recurs throughout Medieval literature Yamamoto explores how humans envisioned animals with human characteristics in bestiaries and literatures that involve aspects of the hunt and heraldry Minor texts as well as major works like Chaucer's Knight's Tale are investigated Additionally she explores both examples of humans changing into animal form and those that hover enigmatically between species as wild men and women Investigating this topic she looks to Alexander romances the poetry of Gower and other sources Medieval Clothing and Textiles 12 Robin Netherton, Gale R. Owen-Crocker, 2016 The best new research on medieval clothing and textiles drawing from a range of disciplines The studies collected here range through art artifacts documentary text and poetry addressing both real and symbolic functions of dress and textiles John Block Friedman breaks new ground with his article on clothing for pets and other animals while Grzegorz Pac compares depictions of sacred and royal female dress and evaluates attempts to link them together Jonathan C Cooper describes the clothing of scholars in Scotland's three pre Reformation universities and the effects of the Reformation upon it Camilla Luise Dahl examines references to women's garments in probates and what they reveal about early modern fashions Megan Cavell focuses on the treatment of textiles associated with the Holy of Holies in Old English biblical poetry Frances Pritchard examines the iconography heraldry and inscriptions on a worn and repaired set of embroidered fifteenth century orphreys to determine their origin Finally Thomas M Izbicki summarizes evidence for the choice of white linen for the altar and the responsibilities of priests for keeping it clean and in good repair Women and the Collaborative Art of Gardens Victoria E. Pagán, Judith W. Page, 2023-11-30 Women and the Collaborative Art of Gardens explores the garden and its agency in the history of the built and natural environments as evidenced in landscape architecture literature art archaeology history photography and film Throughout the book each chapter centers the act of collaboration from garden clubs of the early twentieth century as powerful models of women's leadership to the more intimate partnerships between family members to the delicate relationship between artist and subject Women emerge in every chapter whether as gardeners designers owners writers illustrators photographers filmmakers or subjects but the contributors to this dynamic collection unseat common assumptions about the role of women in gardens to make manifest the significant ways in which women write themselves into the accounts of garden design practice and history The book reveals the power of gardens to shape human existence even as humans shape gardens and their representations in a variety of media including brilliantly illuminated manuscripts intricately carved architectural spaces wall paintings black and white photographs and wood cuts Ultimately the volume reveals that gardens are best apprehended when understood as products of collaboration The book will be of interest to scholars and students of gardens and culture ancient Rome art history British literature medieval France film studies women's studies photography African American Studies and landscape architecture The Grove Encyclopedia of Medieval Art and Architecture Colum Hourihane, 2012 This volume offers unparalleled coverage of all aspects of art and architecture from medieval Western Europe from the 6th century to the early 16th century Drawing upon the expansive scholarship in the celebrated Grove Dictionary of Art and adding hundreds of new entries it offers students researchers and the general public a reliable up to date and convenient resource covering this field of major importance in the development of Western history and international art and architecture The Practical Book of Tapestries George Leland Hunter, 1925 Tapestries George Leland Hunter, 1912 Arras Hanging Rebecca Olson, 2013-09-26 Arras Hanging The Textile That Determined Early Modern Literature and Drama reveals that early modern writers aspired to produce narratives that replicated the structure and aesthetic of high quality Renaissance tapestries in order to appeal to their audiences desire for a hands on and idiosyncratic narrative experience Henry VIII and the Art of Majesty Thomas P. Campbell, 2007 Campbell sheds light on Tudor political and artistic culture and the court s response to Renaissance aesthetic ideals He challenges the predominantly text driven histories of the period and offers a fresh perspective on the life of Henry VIII OCLC
