Dialogue And Difference Feminisms Challenge Globalization:

Dialogue and Difference M. Waller, S. Marcos, 2016-09-27 Calling for inclusion and dialogue these essays by an international group of feminist scholars and activists stress the need to put into relation seemingly discrepant approaches to reality and to scholarship in order to build coalitions across the usual North South and East West divides This diverse group of authors who spent fourteen weeks working collaboratively dispense with unity and seek instead to use dialogue and difference in their production of knowledge about effective political action The dialogues materialized here among women's movements that have emerged within different contexts and cosmologies take feminisms challenges to contemporary corporate globalization in new empirical and theoretical directions

Reseña de "Dialogue and Difference: Feminisms Challenge Globalization" de Margarite Waller Y Silvia Marcos (eds.) Rosalva Aída Hernández Castillo, 2008

Dynamics of Religion Christoph Boehinger, Jörg Rüpke, 2016-11-21 Religious ideas practices discourses institutions and social expressions are in constant flux This volume addresses the internal and external dynamics interactions between individuals religious communities and local as well as global society The contributions concentrate on four areas 1 Contemporary religion in the public sphere The Tactics of In visibility among Religious Communities in Europe Religion Intersecting De nationalization and Re nationalization in Post Apartheid South Africa 2 Religious transformations Forms of Religious Communities in Global Society Political Contributions of Ancestral Cosmologies and the Decolonization of Religious Beliefs Esoteric Tradition as Poetic Invention 3 Focus on the individual Religion and Life Trajectories of Islamists Angels Animals and Religious Change in Antiquity and Today Gaining Access to the Radically Unfamiliar in Today's Religion Religion between Individuals and Collectives 4 Narrating religion Entangled Knowledge Cultures and the Creation of Religions in Mongolia and Europe Global Intellectual History and the Dynamics of Religion On Representing Judaism

Transnational Feminism in Film and Media K. Marciniak, A. Imre, 2007-12-09 This collection of interdisciplinary essays examines current cinematic and media landscapes from the perspective of transnational feminist practices and methodologies Focusing on film media art and video essays the contributors chart innovative strategies for exploring contemporary visual cultures

Women and Indigenous Religions Sylvia Marcos, Cheryl A. Kirk-Duggan, Lillian Ashcraft-Eason, Karen Jo Torjesen, 2010-07-01 This book examines the critical and often undervalued contributions of women to the culture well being and subsistence of their communities as active powerful and wise ritual specialists From the Dalit midwives in India to the women of the Nahua region in the state of Morelos Mexico from the indigenous nations in Turtle Island in Canada to the shamans male and female of South Korea and Vietnam there are still many vital indigenous cultures around the world in which women often hold positions of religious authority and leadership Women and Indigenous Religions addresses specific issues in the study of religion such as the multifaceted tensions between indigenous traditions and gender and the genealogy of positions of authority in religion or spiritual matters A close examination reveals that native religions with their women specialists are still a source of inspiration for millions of men and women even in the advanced areas in the world This fact challenges the opinion that indigenous cultures are becoming extinct Mapping the Legal Boundaries of Belonging René Provost,2014 For several decades culture played a central role in challenging the liberal tradition More recently however religion has re emerged as one of the central challenges facing Western liberal societies conception of multiculturalism Mapping the Legal Boundaries of Belonging explores the complex relationship between religion and multiculturalism and the role of the state and law in the creation of boundaries The intersection between religion nationalism and other vectors of difference in Canada and Israel offer an ideal laboratory in which to examine multiculturalism in particular and the governance of diversity in general The contributors to this volume investigate concepts of religious difference and diversity and the ways in which these two states and legal systems understand and respond to them As a consequence of a purportedly secular human rights perspective they show state laws may appear to define religious identity in a way that contradicts the definition found within a particular religion Both state and religion make the same mistake if they take a court decision that emphasizes individual belief and practice as effecting a direct modification of a religious norm the court lacks the power to change the authoritative internal definition of who belongs to a particular faith Similarly in the pursuit of a particular model of social diversity the state may adopt policies that imply a particular private public distinction foreign to some religious traditions Christianity Across Borders Gemma Tulud Cruz,2021-07-29 This book offers a comprehensive exploration of key issues in contemporary global migration and considers the theological implications for Christianity in general and for Christian faith and practice in various parts of the world in particular Migrant Christians who make up the majority of believers on the move and in diaspora play an increasingly vital role in world Christianity today Drawing on cases from across the globe Gemma Tulud Cruz considers how Christians are faced with immense gifts and tremendous challenges brought by the ever increasing presence of migrants in their midst and the conditions that characterize contemporary global migration Migrant Christians themselves face multiple challenges which have been made more stark by the coronavirus pandemic The volume will be relevant to scholars of religion and of migration who are interested in a closer examination of what happens to Christians and Christianity faith communities and nation states in the age of migration Subjectivity and Sexuality in Contemporary Chinese Feminist Writing Ruttapond Swanpitak,2025-02-17 This book explores representations of female sexuality and subjectivity in contemporary Chinese fiction by three women writers published from 1986 to 2000 from the perspective of poststructuralist feminism It discusses the representative works of authors Wang Anyi Tie Ning and Chi Li who are well known in the Chinese literary field However their works have not to date been analysed through the poststructuralist feminism s notions of subjectivity femininity and transgression This book then provides detailed analysis of each writer and draws comparisons between their works to provide an extended consideration of female sexuality and subjectivity within post Mao Chinese fiction In this respect this book not only offers fresh insights into the three authors fiction but also contributes to the feminist study of Chinese women's writing. Additionally, the research contributes to a better understanding of contemporary Chinese culture in relation to patriarchy, misogyny, feminism, differences, and resistance. It is relevant to scholars in the fields of China studies, Chinese literature, feminist literature, and gender studies. Gender Epistemologies and Eurasian Borderlands Madina Vladimirovna Tlostanova, 2010-10-15. In an important contribution to postcolonial gender and Eurasian ethnic studies, Madina Tlostanova examines Central Asia and the Caucasus to trace the genealogy of feminism in those regions following the dissolution of the USSR. The forms it takes, she finds, resist interpretation through the lenses of both Western feminist theory and woman of color feminism. Tlostanova argues that Eurasian borderland feminism must chart a third path sensitive to the region's own unique past. The Book Review Digest, 2007. Female Circumcision and the Politics of Knowledge Obioma Nnaemeka, 2005-07-30. Heated debates about and insurgencies against female circumcision are symptoms of a disease emanating from a mindset that produced hierarchies of humans, conquered colonies, and built empires. The loss of colonies and empires does not in any way mitigate the ideological underpinnings of empire building and the knowledge construction that subtends it. The mindset finds its articulation at points of coalescence. Female circumcision provided a point of coalescence and impetus for this articulation. Insisting that the hierarchy on which the imperialist project rests is not bipolar but multi-layered and more complex, the contributions in this volume demonstrate how imperialist discourses complicate issues of gender, race, and history. Nnaemeka gives voice to the silenced and marginalized and creates space for them to participate in knowledge construction and theory making. The authors in this volume trace the travels of imperial and colonial discourses from antecedents in anthropology, travel writings, and missionary discourse to modern configurations in films, literature, and popular culture. The contributors interrogate foreign or Western modus operandi and interventions in the so-called Third World and show how the resistance they generate can impede development work and undermine the true collaboration and partnership necessary to promote a transnational feminist agenda. With great clarity and in simple, accessible language, the contributors present complex ideas and arguments which hold significant implications for transnational feminism and development.
