Fry,1996 This Reader brings together in one unique volume the key texts that characterize the contemporary dialogue between Jews and Christians It will be an invaluable resource for anyone seeking an accessible overview of the major issues and movements in the Christian Jewish dialogue Jewish-Christian Dialogue and the Life of Wisdom Matthew Levering,2010-03-21 This book inquires as to whether theological dialogue between Christians and Jews is possible not only in itself but also as regards the emergence of communities of Messianic Judaism In light of David Novak s insights Matthew Levering proposes that Christian theological responses to supersessionism need to preserve both the Church s development of doctrine and Rabbinic Judaism s ability to define its own boundaries The book undertakes constructive philosophical theology in dialogue with Novak Exploring the interrelated doctrines of divine providence theonomy the image of God and natural law Levering places Novak s work in conversation especially with Thomas Aquinas whose approach fosters a rich dialogue with Novak s broadly Maimonidean perspective It focuses upon the relationship of human beings to the Creator with attention to the philosophical entailments of Jewish and Christian covenantal commitments aiming to spell out what true freedom involves It concludes by asking whether Christians and Jews would do better to bracket our covenantal commitments in pursuing such wisdom Drawing upon Novak's work the author argues that in the face of suffering and death God's covenantal election makes possible hope lacking which the quest for wisdom runs aground

The Jewish People and Jesus Christ After Auschwitz Jakob Jocz,1991-10-08 The author marks the end of World War II as the closing of an important period of history and the possible new beginning for the Jewish people the church and the world at large He cites two events as of major importance the creation of the Jewish state of Israel and the second Vatican Council He takes a look at the evolution of a new kind of Judaism that is more tolerant and accepting of Jesus as Jew just as the church intensifies its commitment to Judaeo-Christian dialogue Originally published by Baker Book House in 1981

Interaction Between Judaism and Christianity in History, Religion, Art, and Literature Marcel Poorthuis,Joshua Jay Schwartz,Joseph Turner,2009 This volume contains essays dealing with complex relationships between Judaism and Christianity taking a bold step assuming that no historical period can be excluded from the interactive process between Judaism and Christianity conscious or unconscious as either rejection or appropriation

CCAR Journal Central Conference of American Rabbis,1977 Military Chaplains' Review ,1981 Post-Holocaust Jewish-Christian Dialogue Alan L. Berger,2014-12-23 This volume sheds light on the transformed post Holocaust relationship between Catholics and Jews Once implacable theological foes the two traditions have travelled a great distance in coming to view the other with respect and dignity Responding to the horrors of Auschwitz the Catholic Church has undergone a reckoning of the soul beginning with its landmark document Nostra Aetate and embraced a positive theology of Judaism including the ongoing validity of the Jewish covenant Jews have responded to this unprecedented outreach especially in the document Dabru Emet Together these two Abrahamic traditions have begun seeking a repair of the world The road has been rocky and certainly obstacles remain Nevertheless authentic interfaith dialogue remains a new and promising development in the search for a peace
