Dialogue On Life:

EBOOK: Learning Spaces: Creating Opportunities for Knowledge Creation in Academic Life Maggi Savin-Baden, 2007-11-16 This is a timely and important book which seeks to reclaim universities as places of learning. It is jargon free and forcefully argued. It should be on every principal and vice chancellor's list of essential reading. Jon Nixon, Professor of Educational Studies, University of Sheffield. The ability to have or to find space in academic life seems to be increasingly difficult since we seem to be consumed by teaching and bidding, overwhelmed by emails and underwhelmed by long arduous meetings. This book explores the concept of learning spaces, the idea that there are diverse forms of spaces within the life and life world of the academic where opportunities to reflect and critique their own unique learning position occur. Learning Spaces sets out to challenge the notion that academic thinking can take place in cramped busy working spaces and argues instead for a need to recognise and promote new opportunities for learning spaces to emerge in academic life. The book examines the ideas that Learning spaces are increasingly absent in academic life. The creation and re-creation of learning spaces is vital for the survival of the academic community. The absence of learning spaces is resulting in increasing dissolution and fragmentation of academic identities. Learning spaces need to be valued and possibly redefined in order to regain and maintain the intellectual health of academe. In offering possibilities for creative learning spaces, this innovative book provides key reading for those interested in the future of universities including educational developers, researchers, managers and policy makers.

Making Friends Across the Boundaries of Religious Differences DEUSDEDIT NKURUNZIZ, 2014-12-09 Making Friends Across the Boundaries of Religious Differences. Religions Building Peace for a New World Order discusses the meaning, reality and dynamism of religion, explores different faiths, religious traditions currently influencing humanity today and argues that interreligious dialogue is the way to go for the people of different religions to work together to enhance a culture of justice, human rights, democratic governance, nonviolence and peace in the world today. While religion has been used to cause conflict, violence and war, the book explains how in this time of globalization, faith and religion can be enhanced as resources for a new world order of justice and peace. The book further highlights interreligious dialogue as a methodology and way of life which brings about unity in diversity, advocacy for a world without terrorism, theological perspectives, women in interreligious dialogue and how in Africa interreligious action is the soul of social economic transformation. African Renaissance and Cosmopolitanism.
