The Reformation

The Reformation was a religious movement that began in the early 16th century and led to the creation of Protestant churches. It was a response to the corruption and excesses of the Catholic Church. Key figures include Martin Luther, John Calvin, and Ulrich Zwingli. The movement spread across Europe, leading to the formation of new denominations and the eventual split of the Western Church.

- Martin Luther's 95 Theses (1517)
- John Calvin's Institutes of the Christian Religion (1536)
- Ulrich Zwingli's reforms in Zurich (1520s)
- The English Reformation (1530s)
- The Lutheran Reformation (1520s)
- The Calvinist Reformation (1530s)
- The Anabaptist movement (1520s)

The Reformation led to the formation of new Protestant churches, including Lutheranism, Calvinism, and Anabaptism. It also led to the English Reformation, which resulted in the establishment of the Church of England. The Reformation had a profound impact on European society, leading to the development of modern democratic principles and the separation of church and state.
