Developments In Modern Historiography:

Developments in Modern Historiography Henry Kozicki, 1998-08-26 Collections of essays surveying the historical discipline at the end of the 1970s heralded the new approaches that promised a rich diversity and cosmopolitan pluralism in the face of the uncertainty of historical reality The essayists in this successor volume surveying the work of the 1980s finds that these new approaches have not brought satisfactory results and argues that traditional practices reassessed and properly understood constitute the true scientific grounding of the discipline Objective reality is obtainable the historian's subjectivity can be understood rationally historical sources and causal strategies can be managed objectively In brief a truthful account of the past is possible but it must be both objective and subjective A Global History of Modern Historiography Georg G Iggers, Q. Edward Wang, Supriya Mukherjee, 2013-09-13 So far histories of historiography have concentrated almost exclusively on the West This is the first book to offer a history of modern historiography from a global perspective Tracing the transformation of historical writings over the past two and half centuries the book portrays the transformation of historical writings under the effect of professionalization which served as a model not only for Western but also for much of non Western historical studies At the same time it critically examines the reactions in post modern and post colonial thought to established conceptions of scientific historiography A main theme of the book is how historians in the non Western world not only adopted or adapted Western ideas but also explored different approaches rooted in their own cultures A Global History of Modern Historiography Georg G Iggers, Q. Edward Wang, Supriya Mukherjee, 2016-09-01 The first book on historiography to adopt a global and comparative perspective on the topic A Global History of Modern Historiography looks not just at developments in the West but also at the other great historiographical traditions in Asia the Middle East and elsewhere around the world over the course of the past two and a half centuries This second edition contains fully updated sections on Latin American and African historiography discussion of the development of global history environmental history and feminist and gender history in recent years and new coverage of Russian historical practices Beginning in the mid eighteenth century the authors analyse historical currents in a changing political social and cultural context examining both the adaptation and modification of the Western influence on historiography and how societies outside Europe and America found their own ways in the face of modernization and globalization Supported by online resources including a selection of excerpts from key historiographical texts this book offers an up to date account of the status of historical writing in the global era and is essential reading for all students of modern historiography The Modern Historiography Reader Adam Budd, 2009 A perfect introduction to historiography including both the canon of ideas since the eighteenth century and the work that formed and discussed those ideas Contemporary Studies on Modern Chinese History II Zeng Yeying, 2020-10-29 The study of modern Chinese history has developed rapidly in recent decades and has seen increased exploration of new topics and innovative approaches Resulting from a

The American Jewish Chronicle, 1916 From Consensus to Chaos: An Historical Analysis of Evangelical Interpretation of 1 Timothy 2:8-15 from 1945-2001 Stephen P. Dray, 2006-11-22 Evangelical interpretation of 1 Timothy 2:8-15 certainly at the level of detail has in the period from 1945 to 2001 changed from one of received consensus to confused plurality This thesis provides an explanation of this phenomenon by identifying and analysing the influences within evangelical interpretation that contributed to and shaped it The first part of the thesis Section A is foundational It establishes the validity of using the term Evangelical as an heuristic concept and provides by means of a wide ranging and unique analysis of published discussions of 1 Timothy 2 8 15 the necessary evidence to demonstrate the changes that took place The major part of the thesis Sections B and C provides for the first time a detailed investigation of these changes This is undertaken with a view to establishing i the factors that contributed to establishing the early consensus ii the circumstances which acted as catalysts to review and on going change and iii the developments which shaped the manner in which discussion subsequently took place and which contributed to the plethora of contemporary interpretations of 1 Timothy 2 8 15 In doing so it adopts a methodology which self consciously combines both diachronic and synthetic approaches and is thus able a to isolate more effectively major trends and their development and b to provide a framework for a more rigorous analysis The resulting study concludes Section D that evangelical interpretation of 1 Timothy 2 8 15 for the period from 1945 to 2001 was embedded in and shaped by contemporary social and ecclesiastical changes and by its own internal dynamics as it responded to these developments In particular differing responses to emerging theological linguistic historical and cultural discussions and to contemporary hermeneutical debates have proved decisive While two broadly distinguishable and conflicting approaches developed they spawned a plethora of different exegetical options and variant interpretations

History After the Three Worlds Arif Dirlik, Vinay Bahl, Peter Gran, 2000-11-22 This ambitious volume provides a comparative perspective on the challenges facing the discipline of history as Eurocentrism fades as a lens for viewing the world Exploring the state of history and the struggle over its ownership throughout the world the authors address the issues of globalization postmodernism and postcolonialism that have been largely ignored by practicing historians despite their importance to cultural studies and their relevance to history Engaging in a vigorous critique of Eurocentrism the volume at the same time reaffirms the importance of historical ways of knowing

Maya and Spaniard in Yucatan, 1648-1812 Robert Patch, 1994-04-01 A study of the development of human society in Yucatan during the colonial period this book poses a challenge to a variety of accepted views including the notion that Yucatan was largely isolated from the main part of Spain's New World empire and thus from international markets and the world economy an isolation often cited as the principal reason for the extended survival of indigenous culture in the region In the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Yucatan society was composed of both Maya and Spanish commonwealths each with its own economic social and political organization This book represents several new departures both for what is known about colonial Yucatan and for colonial Latin American history in general It forces the reader to rethink much of the received knowledge about acculturation the hacienda and inter regional relations

The Development of the Church Philip Schaff, 2017-01-19 Philip Schaff the founder of church history in America was widely celebrated in his later career Soon after his arrival from Germany however his Principle of Protestantism 1845 was stiffly denounced for its favorable attitude toward Roman Catholicism harsh critique of denominationalism and theory of historical progress leading to a church that would be both Evangelical and Catholic Charles Hodge s review of the book provided the most cogent analysis of its implications for American Christianity Schaff further clarified his understanding of progress in What Is Church History 1846 and German Theology and the Church Question 1853 Together these early writings of the Mercersburg theology set forth the parameters of what later generations would call the ecumenical movement This edition carefully preserves these texts while providing extensive introductions annotations bibliography and a glossary of key names to orient the reader and facilitate further scholarship The Mercersburg Theology Study Series presents attractive readable scholarly modern editions of the key writings of the nineteenth century theological movement led by Philip Schaff and John Nevin It aims to introduce the academic community and the broader public more fully to Mercersburg s unique blend of American and European Reformed and Catholic theology
