Dewey Russell Whitehead Philosophers As Educators:

Dewey, Russell, Whitehead Brian Patrick Hendley,2010-03-19 In Philosophers as Educators Brian Patrick Hendley argues that philosophers of education should reject their preoccupation with defining terms and analyzing concepts and embrace the philosophical task of constructing general theories of education Hendley discusses in detail the educational philosophies of John Dewey Bertrand Russell and Alfred North Whitehead He sees in these men excellent role models that contemporary philosophers might well follow Hendley believes that like these mentors philosophers should take a more active practical role in education Dewey and Russell ran their own schools and Whitehead served as a university administrator and as a member of many committees created to study education

Women Educators in the Progressive Era A. Durst,2010-07-19 In 1896 John Dewey established the Laboratory School at the University of Chicago an experimental school designed to test his ideas in the reality of classroom practice Through a collective portrait of four of the school s teachers Women Educators in the Progressive Era examines the struggles and satisfactions of teaching at this innovative school and situates the school community in the context of Progressive Era experimental impulses in Chicago and the nation This book reassesses the implications of Dewey s ideas for current efforts to improve schools as it explores how the Laboratory School teachers participated in inquiry designed to advance educational thought and practice

Pioneers of Early Childhood Education Barbara Peltzman,1998-01-26 Early childhood education is fundamental to a child s later educational achievements and future success The principles and practices of modern early childhood education have their origins in the past While the educators who built the field have been the subject of many detailed studies previous works do not provide adequate coverage of primary and secondary sources multicultural educators or more recent leaders in the discipline This reference book provides biographies and annotated bibliographies of more than 30 pioneers in early childhood education from Johann Amos Comenius 1592 1670 and John Locke 1632 1704 to Maria Montessori 1870 1952 Leland B Jacobs 1907 1992 and Lillian Weber 1917 1994 Special attention is given to multicultural educators including Mary Church Terrell 1863 1954 and her work with The National Association of Colored Women Biographies are arranged alphabetically and each is followed by annotated bibliographies of primary and secondary sources An introductory essay briefly discusses the history of early childhood education from the 17th century to the present The following biographies are arranged alphabetically and each includes a brief summary of the subjects contributions to the field of early childhood education Each biographical sketch is followed by annotated bibliography of primary and secondary sources including obituaries articles dissertations and books Works were selected because they represent the most interesting and informative sources by and about the educators The volume closes with a chronological listing of the pioneers and a selected bibliography of general works on early childhood education
