Dialogue and Literature Michael Macovski,1994-05-12 Extending and reframing the works of Bakhtin Gadamer Ong and Foucault with particular emphasis on Bakhtin's late essays Macovski constructs a theoretical model of literary dialogue and applies it to a range of Romantic texts In reconsidering specific works within the context of cultural heuristics rhetorical theory and literary history Macovski redefines Romantic discourse as both extratextual and agonistic He thereby re-evaluates such Romantic topics as the history of the autotelic self the proliferation of lyric orality and the nineteenth century critique of rhetoric He examines poetry by Wordsworth and Coleridge as well as such nineteenth century prose works as Frankenstein Wuthering Heights and Heart of Darkness

Metrical Constraint and the Interpretation of Style in the Tragic Trimeter Nicholas Baechle, 2007-03-26

Metrical Constraint and the Interpretation of Style in the Tragic Trimeter is an interpretation of the choices the Greek tragedians made in regard to certain forms of standardized variations in word order and prosody Dr Nicholas Baechle demonstrates that in their compositional practice the tragedians collectively decided to use certain prosodic variations to fit metrically intractable words and phrases This book is grounded in metrical constraint and the mechanics of trimeter composition but also extends to a greater understanding of the stylistic sensibilities of the tragedians and of their feeling for the generic ethos of tragic dialogue By means of comparisons with Aristophanes general practice and with paratragic imitations of tragic style the distinctiveness of the style of tragic dialogue versus the rendition of speech in comedy is made clear Metrical Constraint and the Interpretation of Style in the Tragic Trimeter offers a critical and sophisticated perspective on Greek drama that will appeal to anyone interested in language and classical studies

Perfidy and Passion Mark Buchan, 2012-08-06

Homer's Iliad is often considered a poem of blunt truthfulness his characters motivation pleasingly simple A closer look however reveals a complex interplay of characters who engage in an awful lot of lies Beginning with Achilles who hatches a secret plot to destroy his own people Mark Buchan traces motifs of deception and betrayal throughout the poem Homer's heroes offer bluster their passion linked to and explained by their lack of authenticity Buchan reads Homer's characters between the lies showing how the plot is structured individual denial and what cannot be said Ériu, 1974 Irony and Meaning in the Hebrew Bible Carolyn J. Sharp, 2009 Was God being ironic in commanding Eve not to eat fruit from the tree of wisdom Carolyn J Sharp suggests that many stories in the Hebrew Scriptures may be ironically intended Deftly interweaving literary theory and exegesis Sharp illuminates the power of the unspoken in a wide variety of texts from the Pentateuch the Prophets and the Writings She argues that reading with irony in mind creates a charged and open rhetorical space in the texts that allows character narration and authorial voice to develop in unexpected ways Main themes explored here include the ironizing of foreign rulers the prostitute as icon of the ironic gaze indeterminacy and dramatic irony in prophetic performance and irony in ancient Israel's wisdom traditions Sharp devotes special attention to how irony destabilizes dominant ways in which the Bible is read today especially when it touches on questions of conflict gender and the Other
