Diagnosis Impossible Edward D. Hoch,1996 This collection is set in New England during the 1920 s and the 1930 s and features country doctor Sam Hawthorne who specializes in locked room and other impossible crimes Among the 12 stories is the classic tale of a horse and buggy that enter a covered bridge and vanish Introduction by the author Sam Hawthorne chronology and bibliography by Marvin Lachman The Supernatural and Fantastic in Short Detective Fiction Laird R. Blackwell,2020-11-23 Although fantasy and supernatural literature have long and celebrated histories many critics contend that the fantastic and the supernatural have no place in the logical rational world of the detective story This book is the first extensive study of the fantastic in detective fiction and it explores the highly debated question of whether detective fiction and the fantastic can comfortably coexist The locked room mystery which often uses the fantastic as a red herring to eventually be debunked by reason and logic has long been among the most popular subgenres of detective fiction This book also explores stories featuring almost supernaturally gifted detectives stories where the supernatural is truly encountered and stories with ambiguous endings Close to 500 detective stories from 1841 to 2000 in which the fantastic or supernatural plays a central role are discussed and analyzed Although not all the stories are judged to be successful as detective tales in the great majority the fantastic enlivens the tale and deepens the mystery without weakening the detective elements

Frederic Dannay, Ellery Queen's Mystery Magazine and the Art of the Detective Short Story Laird R.
