Dialogues Damour:

La Belle Dame qui eust mercy and Le Dialogue d'amoureux et de sa dame Joan Grenier-Winther, 2018-09-28 La Belle Dame qui eust mercy and Le Dialogue d'amoureux et de sa dame are two late medieval poems in which a courtly gentleman and lady debate the merits of his pleas for her affections In both cases the lady is recalcitrant dismissing her suitor's lovesickness as a trifle denying that she ever gave any sign of encouragement and wishing to protect her reputation The lady in Le Dialogue never capitulates in contrast the Belle Dame ends by agreeing to her lover's suit and imagining a future in which they will joyfully live together Both poems merit serious attention for their kinship with Alain Chartier's La Belle Dame sans mercy 1424 and other poems in the so-called Belle Dame cycle Their presence in numerous fifteenth and sixteenth century manuscript and printed collections attests to their appeal in their day Equally as significant is their unusual bipartite stanzaic structure suggesting amalgamation of separate poems and/or continuations of existing poems Such an anomaly complicates attribution of authorship and dating but close study of La Belle Dame qui eust mercy and Le Dialogue d'amoureux et de sa dame can only enhance our understanding of the processes of poetic composition as well as the mise en page and reception of literary works in the late Middle Ages Revue scientifique, 1883 Arts & Humanities Citation Index, 1994 Dialogues of Love León (Hebreo), 2009 Leone's Dialogues consists of three conversations On Love and Desire On the Universality of Love and On the Origin of Love that take place over a period of three subsequent days They are organized in a dialogic format much like a theatrical representation of a conversation between a man Philo who plays the role of the lover and teacher and a woman Sophia the beloved and pupil The discussion covers a wide range of topics that have as their common denominator the idea of Love Through the dialogue the author explores many different points of view and complex philosophical ideas Grounded in a distinctly Jewish tradition and drawing on Neoplatonic philosophical structures and Arabic sources the work offers a useful compendium of classical and contemporary thought yet was not incompatible with Christian doctrine The Academy, 1907 Academy and Literature Charles Edward Cutts Birch Appleton, Charles Edward Doble, James Sutherland Cotton, Charles Lewis Hind, William Teignmouth Shore, Alfred Bruce Douglas, Ellis Ashmead-Bartlett, Thomas William Hodgson Crosland, 1907 Dans la lumière antique: Le livre des dialogues; les dialogues d'amour Auguste Angellier, 1923 Who's who Henry Robert Addison, Charles Henry Oakes, William John Lawson, Douglas Brooke Wheelton Sladen, 1910 An annual biographical dictionary with which is incorporated Men and women of the time Classified Catalogue of the Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh. 1907-1911 Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh, 1914 La Revue scientifique de la France et de l'étranger, 1883 Classified Catalogue Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh, 1914 Revue des cours scientifiques de la France et de l'étranger, 1883 Speaking of Love: The Love Dialogue in Italian and French Renaissance Literature Reinier Leushuis, 2017-03-27 Re-evaluating the dialogue's place in the literary landscape of the Italian and French Renaissance Speaking of Love presents the love dialogue at the intersection of a revival of the form and the period's philosophies of love and desire. Between 1540 and 1580 authors such as Speroni, Tullia d'Aragona, the Venetian poligraphi, Tyard, Le Caron, Pasquier, Taillemont, Marguerite de Navarre, and Louise Labé feature interlocutors not only deliberating on love but imitating the experience of love in their dynamics of speaking. These love dialogues allow early modern ideologies and discourses of love to be imitated by the reader and rival lyric poetry in conveying amorous experience, validating dialogue as an authentic literary form rather than a tool of philosophical thinking.
